Form 990 is available for public inspection and, for some people, serves as the primary or sole source of information about a particular organization. How the public perceives an organization in such cases may be determined by the information presented on its return. Therefore, please make sure the return is complete and accurate and fully describes, in Part III, the organization's programs and accomplishments.

Expenses

Environmental Education

$ 103,069

During fiscal year 2001 SFBWS received funds pursuant to agreements with local governments and agencies and disbursed those funds in support of education and interpretation programs of the Don Edwards Refuge. Most of these funds paid salaries of two full time non-refuge staff that provide education and habitat restoration services of special interest to two local governments and that are managed by US Fish and Wildlife employees.

The Society also receives corporate and foundation grants to support other environmental education offered year-round at visitor centers of the San Francisco Bay National Wildlife Refuge Complex concentrating especially on educator-led field trip programs for grades K through 8. In addition, during FY 2001 a watershed map of the Santa Clara basin was completed for use in education programs to demonstrate how water moves from storm drains, culverts and natural creek beds into San Francisco Bay.

Bair Island Restoration and Other Refuge Programs

$ 280,389

During FY 2001 the Society was designated as financial manager of a multi-year project to develop a plan to restore Bair Island in San Francisco Bay. In the role the Society controls the disbursement by three interested donors to the developers of the restoration plan. Funds disbursed in FY 2001 for this project totaled $232,427.

Total Expenses

Notice to Applicant-To Be Completed by the IRS

- We have approved this application. Please attach this form to the organization's return.
 We have not approved this application. However, we have granted a 10-day grace period from the later of the date shown below or the due date of the organization's return (including any prior extensions). This grace period is considered to be a valid extension of time for elections otherwise required to be made on a timely return. Please attach this form to the organization's return.
 We have not approved this application. After considering the reasons stated in item 7, we cannot grant your request for an extension of time to file. We are not granting a 10-day grace period.
 We cannot consider this application because it was filed after the due date of the return for which an extension was requested.
