990 EZ, Part III

The Corporation is organized for the following more specific exempt purposes:

- i. To promote and conduct educational activities regarding the genetic disorder known as 22q13 Deletion Syndrome, including the reason(s) the disorder occurs and its physical effects upon the persons having the disorder;
- ii. To conduct periodic conferences and publish literature intended to educate the families of persons affected worldwide by the disorder, to provide guidance in the care of the affected family members as research progresses, and to further the family members' understanding of the behavioral and physical effects that the defect may produce;
- iii. Assist the Greenwood Genetic Center and other genetic research organizations in their study of the genetic disorder by, among other things, bringing persons with the defect and their families to locations where the genetic research organizations may take blood specimens, study the behavioral and physical attributes of persons having the defect and conduct other research activities
- iv. To solicit contributions of any kind to this corporation, provided that the corporation has the power to reject any gift made subject to any condition which the corporation believes to be in conflict with its policy or the best interests of this corporation;
- v. To make distributions to organizations that themselves qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code); and
- vi. In addition to the foregoing purposes, to do any and all lawful acts and things and to engage in any and all lawful activities permitted by the South Carolina Nonprofit Corporation Act of 1994, as amended from time to time or any successor act, and permissible for an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code) which may be necessary, useful, suitable, desirable, or proper for the furtherance, accomplishment, or attainment of any and all the purposes for which the corporation is organized.
