GRANTS

Founded in 1985, MAZON is the only national, Jewish organization solely dedicated to the issue of hunger. Recognizing that poverty and hunger affect all people, MAZON allocates donations from the Jewish community to prevent and alleviate hunger among people of all faiths and backgrounds. MAZON ("food" in Hebrew) has evolved to become a leader in the national anti-hunger movement. Since its beginning, MAZON has granted more than $30 million to emergency food providers, food banks, multi-service organizations and advocacy groups which seek both short- and long-term solutions to hunger.

During 2003, MAZON granted $3,334,170 to 313 organizations.

A major component of MAZON's mission is educating the Jewish community about its obligation to end hunger and its causes. MAZON does this by partnering with rabbis and other professional staff synagogues throughout America. These partners stress the importance of hunger-relief efforts to their congregants and the broader community by providing their congregants with innovative educational materials produced by MAZON.

MAZON's fundraising structure underscores this mandate of public education. MAZON raises funds by asking American Jews to contribute 3% of the cost of joyous celebrations, such as Bar/Bat Mitzvahs and weddings. In doing so, MAZON emphasizes the importance of tikkun olam even in the midst of the most joyous celebrations.

MAZON has been formally endorsed by over 800 synagogues nationwide, as well as by the Reform, Conservative, Reconstructionist, and Modern Orthodox Jewish movements, Hillel International, and a broad spectrum of Jewish organizations represented on MAZON's National Advisory Board.
