The corporation's board of directors may, in its discretion, admit individuals to one or more classes of nonvoting members; the class or classes shall have such rights and obligations as the board finds appropriate.

ARTICLE 3. DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number

The authorized number of directors of the corporation shall not be less than fifteen (15) nor more than thirty (30), until changed by amendment of the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. The Board of Directors shall fix the exact number of directors from time to time within these limits. Until changed by the Board, the authorized number of directors shall be thirty (30).

Section 2. Selection and Term of Office

Directors shall be elected by the vote of a majority of the directors then in office, except that no incumbent director may vote his or her reelection to the board. Directors shall hold office for a period of three (3) years and until the election and qualification of the successor to such director. Directors appointed to fill vacancies as provided for in Article 3, Section 10 shall serve through the unexpired term of that office.

Section 3. Powers

Subject to the provisions of the California General Corporation Law and any limitations in the articles of incorporation and these bylaws, the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the board of directors.

Section 4. Duties And Responsibilities

In addition, they may be allowed reasonable compensation with prior approval for extraordinary services and advancement or reimbursement for expenses incurred in the performance of their regular duties as specified in Section 4 of this Article.

Section 6: Place of Meetings

Meetings of the board shall be held at any place within or outside California that has been designated by resolution of the board or in the notice of meeting or, if not so designated, at the principal office of the corporation.

Section 7: Meetings

The Board of Directors shall meet at least quarterly. Special meetings may be called by the President, the Executive Committee, or upon the written request of three or more directors.

Any meeting may be held by conference telephone or other communications equipment permitted by the Law, as long as all directors participating in the meeting can communicate with one another and all other requirements of the Law are satisfied. All such directors shall be deemed to be present in person at such meeting.

Section 8: Notice, Quorum and Voting

Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, no meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held, and no business transacted at such meeting shall be valid, unless notice of the place, time, and tentative agenda of such meeting is given to all directors either by first class or express mail at least 4 days before the date of the meeting, or delivered personally or communicated to each director by telephone (including a voice messaging system which records and communicates messages), facsimile, or electronic mail at least 48 hours before the date of the meeting.

Every act done or decision made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board of Directors, unless a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or the Law. Directors may not vote by proxy. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a disinterested majority of the required quorum for such meeting, or such greater number as required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or the Law.
