BY-LAWS
OF
AMERICAN FRIENDS OF THE LOUVRE, INC.

(a Delaware corporation not for profit and without capital stock)

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

The principal office of American Friends of the Louvre, Inc. (the "Corporation") shall be located at such place within or without the State of Delaware as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. The Corporation may also have other offices at such other places both within and without the State of Delaware as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

ARTICLE II

NO MEMBERS

As set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation, the Corporation has no members.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers and Number. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors (the "Board") in accordance with the purposes and limitations set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation. The Board of Directors may delegate to one or more directors such powers and authority as the Board shall specify by resolution. The number of directors that shall constitute the Board shall be not less than three nor more than fifteen. Within the specified limits, the number of directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Classification, Election and Term. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be divided into two classes: Class I and Class II.

(a) Class I. The directors of Class I (the "Class I Directors") must constitute a majority of the Board of Directors, and shall be elected for a term of three years at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors, where there is a quorum present as provided in Section 9 of this Article, by a majority of the directors then in office. Each Class I Director shall be a citizen or resident of the United States who is not a director, officer or employee of the Musée du Louvre.

(b) Class II. The directors of Class II (the "Class II Directors"), which must constitute a minority of the Board of Directors, shall be elected for a term of three years at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors, where there is a quorum present as provided in Section 9 of this Article, by a majority of the directors then in office, provided that each Class II Director must be elected by the Board of Directors from a list of candidates proposed by the president-director of the Musée de Louvre.

(c) In General. Each director, whether a Class I Director or a Class II Director, shall hold office until the expiration of such director's term and until the election or appointment and qualification of such director's successor or until such director's earlier death, resignation or removal, except as provided in Section 3 of this Article. At each subsequent annual meeting thereafter, the directors chosen to succeed those whose terms are expiring shall be identified as being of the same class as the directors whom they succeed and shall be appointed or elected for a term of three years and the election or appointment and qualification of such director's successor or until such director's earlier death, resignation or removal. At the expiration of any term, any director, whether a Class I Director or a Class II Director, may be reelected. At all times, the number of Class I Directors shall exceed the number of Class II Directors by at least one director.

Section 3. Vacancies and Newly Created Directorships. Newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors and vacancies occurring in the Board of Directors in either Class I or Class II for any cause, including any such vacancy occurring by reason of the removal of any director from office with cause, may be filled, in the case of either a Class I or a Class II Director, by the vote of a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and, in the case of a Class II Director, only from among those candidates proposed by the president-director of the Musée de Louvre. Each director so elected or appointed shall serve until the next annual meeting and until such director's successor is elected or appointed and qualified or until such director's earlier death, resignation, or removal. New directorships shall be classified so as to maintain a majority of Class I Directors by at least one director.

Section 4 Removal. Provided there is a quorum of not less than a majority of directors then in office present, a Class I Director may be removed with or without cause by the vote of a majority of the Board of Directors present at the meeting at which such action is taken. Provided there is a quorum of not less than a majority of directors then in office, a Class II Director may be removed with or without cause by the vote of two-thirds of the entire board

Section 5 Resignations. Any director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President or Secretary. The resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 6. Meetings. (a) Annual Meetings. Unless otherwise fixed by the Board of Directors, the annual meeting of the Board shall be the first regular meeting following the beginning of the Corporation's fiscal year.

(b) Regular or Special Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such times and places as may from time to time be fixed by the Board of Directors or as may be specified in a notice of meeting. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time upon the call of the President or any two directors upon written demand of not less than one-third of the directors then in office.

Section 7. Notice of Meetings. Notice need not be given of regular meetings of the Board if the time and place of such meetings are fixed by the Board of Directors. Notice of each special meeting of the Board of Directors must be given to each director not less than two days before such meeting. Notice may be in writing and sent by mail, addressed to such director at his or her address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with prepaid postage thereon. Such notice shall be deemed to have been given when it is deposited in the United States mail. Notice may also be by telephone or sent by facsimile transmission, telegraph, telex, courier service, electronic mail or hand delivery. Notice of a meeting of the Board need not be given to a director who submits a signed waiver of notice before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to him or her.

Section 8. Place and Time of Meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the location, within or without the State of Delaware, which is fixed by the Board of Directors or, in the case of a special meeting, by the person or persons calling the special meeting.

Section 9. Quorum. At each meeting of the Board a majority of the total number of directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, provided that no quorum shall exist unless any Class II Director who is also an officer of the Corporation is present either in-person or by conference telephone at the meeting. If a quorum is not present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting, from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until such a quorum is present.

Section 10. Manner of Acting. Except as otherwise provided herein or required by applicable law, the vote of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

Section 11. Conflicts Policy. Any potential conflict of interest which could result in a direct or indirect financial or personal benefit to a Director, officer or staff member must be disclosed in good faith or known to the Board of Directors or committee authorizing a contract or other transaction. The interested individual may participate in the information-gathering stage of the Board of Directors', or committee's, discussion but shall retire from the room in which the Board of Directors or a committee thereof is meeting and shall not participate in the final deliberation or decision regarding such contract or other transaction. Such interested individual may not vote on such contract or other transaction.

Common or interested Directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at the meeting of the Board or of a committee which authorizes such contracts.

The minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof shall reflect (a) that the conflict of interest was disclosed, (b) that the interested Director, officer or staff member was not present during the final discussion or vote of the Board of Directors or committee thereof and (c) that the interested individual abstained from voting.

All questions as to whether a conflict of interest exists shall be resolved by a vote of the Board of Directors in which the interested individual may not vote

In determining whether to approve such contract or transaction, disinterested directors shall take into account the restrictions regarding self-dealing under Section 4941 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), in the case of an organization classified as a Private Foundation or excess benefit transactions under Section 4958 of the Code, in the case of an organization classified as a Public Charity.

Section 12. Organization. At each meeting of the Board of Directors, the President, or, in the President's absence, the Vice President or a person chosen by the directors present, shall preside. The Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the Board of Directors. In the absence of the Secretary, the presiding officer of the meeting shall appoint a secretary of the meeting.

Section 13. Committees of Directors. The Board of Directors may designate one or more committees, including without limitation an executive committee, to have and exercise such power and authority as the Board of Directors shall specify and as permitted by law. Each committee shall consist of one or more directors. A majority of the members of each committee shall consist of Class I Directors. In the case of a committee consisting of only one director, such director shall be a Class I Director. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not such person or persons constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another director to act at the meeting in place of any such absent or disqualified member. At each meeting of a committee, a majority of the members of the committee shall be present to constitute a quorum, provided that no quorum shall exist unless all of the Class II Directors serving on such committee, if any, are present either in-person or by conference telephone at the meeting. The vote of a majority of the members of a committee present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the committee.

Section 14 Meeting by Conference Telephone. Any one or more members of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment allowing all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting

Section 15. Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors or such committee consent in writing to the adoption of a resolution authorizing the action. The resolution and the written consents thereto by the members of the Board of Directors or such committee shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors or such committee.

Section 16. Compensation of Directors. The Corporation shall not pay any compensation to directors for services rendered to the Corporation, except that directors may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their duties to the Corporation.

ARTICLE IV

ADVISORY BOARDS AND BOARD OF BENEFACTORS

Section 1. Advisory Boards in General. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors then in office, may designate one or more advisory boards of the Corporation. Such advisory boards shall consist of persons who are interested in the purposes and principles of the Corporation. The advisory boards and each member thereof shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. Any vacancy in the advisory boards may be filled and any member of the advisory boards may be removed, either with or without cause, by the Board of Directors. The advisory boards shall advise the Board of Directors as to any matters that are put before it by the Board of Directors concerning the Corporation. The advisory boards shall not have or purport to exercise any powers of the Board of Directors nor shall they have the power to bind the Corporation contractually or to authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to any papers that may require it.

Section 2. Board of Benefactors. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors then in office, may designate as one of the advisory boards of the Corporation a Board of Benefactors. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, appoint to the Board of Benefactors (i) the President of the Corporation, and (ii) other persons who are interested in the purposes and principles of the Corporation. The Board of Benefactors and each member thereof shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. Any vacancy in the Board of Benefactors may be filled and any member of the Board of Benefactors may be removed, either with or without cause, by the Board of Directors. The Board of Benefactors shall advise the Board of Directors as to any matters that are put before it by the Board of Directors concerning the Corporation including, but not limited to, the raising of funds for the Corporation. The Board of Benefactors shall not have or purport to exercise any powers of the Board of Directors nor shall it have the power to bind the Corporation contractually or to authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to any papers that may require it.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The officers of the Corporation shall consist of a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers with such titles as the Board of Directors shall determine, all of whom shall be chosen by and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Election, Term of Office, and Qualifications. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected annually by a vote of the Board of Directors at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors, and each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor is elected and qualified or until such officer's earlier death, resignation, or removal. The President, the Secretary and the Treasurer need to be directors of the Corporation. Except as may otherwise be provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors choosing an officer, any officer other than the President, the Secretary or the Treasurer need not be a director of the Corporation. One person may hold, and perform the duties of, more than one office. All officers shall be subject to the supervision and direction of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Removal. Any officer elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the vote of a majority of the Board of Directors, either with or without cause, at any meeting of the Board at which a majority of the directors is present.

Section 4. Resignations. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President. The resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office arising from any cause shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term in the manner prescribed in these By-Laws for regular appointment to such office.

Section 6. President. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. The President shall have and exercise general charge and supervision of the affairs of the Corporation and shall do and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may assign to the President.

Section 7. Vice President At the request of the President, or in the event of the President's absence or disability, the Vice President shall perform the duties and possess and exercise the powers of the President, and the Vice President shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may assign to the Vice President

Section 8. Secretary. The Secretary shall

- (a) record and keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors in books to be kept for that purpose;

(b) see that all notices and reports are duly given or filed in accordance with these By-Laws or as required by law;

(c) be custodian of the records (other than financial) and have charge of the seal of the Corporation and see that it is used upon all papers or documents whose execution on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is required by law or duly authorized in accordance with these By-Laws; and

(d) in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as the President or the Board of Directors may from time to time assign to the Secretary.

Section 9. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall:

(a) have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Corporation and deposit all such funds in the name of the Corporation in such depositories as shall be designated by the Board of Directors;

(b) exhibit at all reasonable times the Corporation's books of account and records to any of the directors of the Corporation upon application during business hours at the office of the Corporation where such books are kept;

(c) render a statement of the condition of the finances of the Corporation at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors;

(d) receive, and give receipt for, amounts due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever and, subject to the direction of the Board of Directors, authorize the disbursement of funds of the Corporation,

(e) in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer, and such other duties as the President or the Board of Directors may from time to time assign to the Treasurer; and

(f) if required by the Board of Directors, give such security for the faithful performance of the Treasurer's duties as the Board of Directors may require.

Section 10. Compensation. The Board of Directors may from time to time establish a reasonable rate of compensation for any of the officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VI

STAFF

Section 1. Executive Director The Board of Directors may employ an Executive Director who shall be charged with the administrative and executive management of the affairs of the Corporation and such other powers and the performance of such other duties as the Board of Directors may delegate, subject to review by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Additional Personnel. From time to time, the Board of Directors may employ such other staff personnel with such titles as the Board of Directors shall determine according to available administrative funds and needs of the Corporation.

Section 3. Compensation. The Board of Directors may from time to time establish the rate of compensation and benefits for the staff personnel of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VII

EXECUTION OF INSTRUMENTS

Section 1. Contracts and Instruments. The Board of Directors, subject to the provisions of Article III, Section 1, may authorize any officer or officers or agent or agents of the Corporation to enter into any contract or to execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation. Such authority may be general or may be confined to specific instances.

Section 2. Deposits. Funds of the Corporation may be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Corporation with the depositories that are selected by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Orders for the Payment of Money and Endorsements for Deposit
(a) All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, notes, or acceptances issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by the officer or officers or agent or agents of the Corporation authorized, and in the manner determined, from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors.

(b) Endorsements for deposit to the credit of the Corporation in any of its authorized depositories may be made, without countersignature, by any officer of the Corporation or may be made by hand-stamped impression in the name of the Corporation, unless otherwise provided by resolution of the Board of Directors

Section 4. Sale or Transfer of Securities. Stock certificates, notes, bonds, or other securities held or owned by the Corporation may be sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of when endorsed for transfer by the officer or officers or agent or agents of the Corporation authorized, and in the manner determined, from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

To the fullest extent permitted by law:

(a) The Corporation shall indemnify any person (and his or her heirs, executors, guardians, administrators and any other legal representative of that person) who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in (including as a witness) any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, proceeding or inquiry (brought in the right of the Corporation or otherwise), whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, and whether formal or informal, including appeals, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or, while a director or officer of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, for and against all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by that person or that person's heirs, executors, guardians, administrators or legal representatives in connection with that action, suit, proceeding or inquiry, including appeals. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation shall indemnify any person seeking indemnification in connection with an action, suit, proceeding or inquiry (or part thereof) initiated by that person only if that action, suit, proceeding or inquiry (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors.

(b) The Corporation shall pay expenses as incurred by any person described in subsection (a) of this Article in connection with any action, suit, proceeding or inquiry described in subsection (a) of this Article; provided, that, if these expenses are to be paid in advance of the final disposition (including appeals) of an action, suit, proceeding or inquiry, then the payment of expenses shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of the person, to repay all amounts so advanced if it is ultimately determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article or otherwise.

(c) The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person described in subsection (a) of this Article against any liability asserted against him, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against that liability under the provisions of this Article or otherwise.

(d) The provisions of this Article shall be applicable to all actions, suits, proceedings or inquiries made or commenced after the adoption of this Article, whether arising from acts or omissions occurring before or after its adoption. The provisions of this Article shall be deemed to be a contract between the Corporation and each director or officer who serves in such capacity at any time while this Article and the relevant provisions of the laws of the State of Delaware and other applicable law, if any, are in effect, and any repeal or modification of this Article shall not adversely affect any right or protection of any person described in subsection (a) in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to the time of the repeal or modification

(e) If any provision of this Article shall be found to be invalid or limited in application by reason of any law or regulation, that finding shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this Article. The rights of indemnification provided in this Article shall neither be exclusive of, nor be deemed in limitation of, any rights to which any person described in subsection (a) of this Article may otherwise be entitled or permitted by contract, the Certificate of Incorporation, vote of the Board of Directors, or otherwise, or as a matter of law, both as to actions in his or her official capacity and actions in any other capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of any person described in subsection (a) of this Article shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law.

(f) For purposes of this Article, reference to "other enterprises" shall include employee benefit plans; reference to "fines" shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to an employee benefit plan; and reference to "serving at the request of the corporation" shall include any service as a director or officer of the Corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, that director or officer with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants, or beneficiaries.

The Corporation may, by vote of the Board of Directors, provide indemnification and advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation with the same scope and effect as the foregoing indemnification of and advancement of expenses to directors and officers.

ARTICLE IX

GRANTS AND OTHER EXPENDITURES FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF CHARITABLE AND EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES

Section 1. Receipt of Grant Proposals; Authorization. A primary activity of the Corporation is to receive specific grant proposals from the president-director of the Musée du Louvre and to evaluate these proposals and award grants for purposes which, in the discretion of the Board of Directors after due consideration, further the charitable and educational purposes of the Corporation. Grants, gifts, contributions or other distributions for the advance of the charitable and educational purposes of the Corporation shall be made solely to support programs, activities and projects (i) of the Musée du Louvre or (ii) which have been sponsored, initiated or approved by the Musée du Louvre. Grants, gifts, contributions, or other distributions for the advancement of the charitable and educational purposes of the Corporation shall be made only if specifically authorized by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Discretion Retained by Board of Directors Notwithstanding Section 1 of this Article, the Board of Directors shall at all times maintain complete control and discretion over the distribution of funds received by the Corporation, and shall not enter into any agreement with any person or organization that would in any way limit such control or discretion. The Board of Directors shall not represent to any person from whom it solicits or receives gifts, grants, bequests, or contributions that any funds received will be distributed other than at the discretion of the Board. The Board of Directors may solicit or receive gifts, grants, bequests, or contributions for a specific project that it has reviewed and approved as in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation as stated in the Certificate of Incorporation. The Board of Directors may, in its absolute discretion, refuse any conditional or restricted gift, grant, bequest, or contribution and return to the donor any such contribution actually received.

Section 3. Procedures for Distributions. The Board of Directors shall adopt procedures from time to time for grants, gifts, contributions, or other distributions by the Corporation. Such procedures shall not be inconsistent with Federal tax law or the General Corporation Law and shall further the charitable purposes of the Corporation.

Section 4. Evaluation and Site Visits. The Board of Directors shall make such evaluation and site visits with respect to grants as it deems appropriate from time to time.

ARTICLE X

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Seal. The corporate seal shall have inscribed thereon the name of the corporation, the year of its organization and the words "Corporate Seal, Not-for-Profit, Delaware." The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or in any manner reproduced.

Section 3. Books and Records. The Corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account of the activities and transactions of the Corporation, including a minute book, which shall contain a copy of the Certificate of Incorporation, a copy of these By-Laws, and all minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors and committees thereof.

ARTICLE XI

AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Certificate. Subject to Section 242(b)(3) of the General Corporation Law, the Board of Directors may amend the Certificate of Incorporation at any meeting of the Board of Directors, at which a quorum is present, by a vote of a majority of the directors present or by unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. By-Laws. The Board of Directors may amend or repeal these By-Laws at any meeting of the Board of Directors, at which a quorum is present, by a vote of a majority of the directors present or by unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors.
