Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (See the instructions.)

Form 990 is available for public inspection and, for some people, serves as the primary or sole source of information about a particular organization. How the public perceives an organization in such cases may be determined by the information presented on its return. Therefore, please make sure the return is complete and accurate and fully describes, in Part III, the organization's programs and accomplishments.

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose? ► To cure Leukemia, Lymphoma, and other blood cancers		Program Service Expenses (Required for 501(c)(3) and (4) orgs , and 4947(a)(1) trusts, but optional for others)
All organizations must describe their exempt purpose achievements in a clear and concise manner. State the number of clients served, publications issued, etc. Discuss achievements that are not measurable. (Section 501(c)(3) and (4) organizations and 4947(a)(1) nonexempt charitable trusts must also enter the amount of grants and allocations to others.)
a Research- Donated Goods and Services $724,375 The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society uses its research grant program to conduct its mission. As of June 30, 2006 the Society has 415 active grantees at 118 institutions in the United States and abroad. Research grants are awarded in three program areas: Career Development (ranging from $150,000 to $550,000 over five years), Translational Research ($200,000 per year for up to five years), Specialized Centers of Research ($6.25 million over five years).

b Patient and Community Services- Donated Goods and Services $4,171,500 The Society offers a comprehensive array of services to blood cancer patients and their families. The Society offers family support groups, programs to link newly diagnosed patients to volunteers who have experienced a similar diagnosis, web cast and teleconference programs that offer cancer education, a program to provide financial assistance to assist patients with a portion of their treatment costs, educational materials to patients and health professionals, and conducts programs to provide information about clinical trials.
(Grants and allocations $)	If this amount includes foreign grants, check here ► <input type="checkbox"/>	58,262,052
c Public Health Education The Society meets the needs of the public through its Information Resource Center (IRC) and the Society's website. The IRC provides information and resources useful to patients, their families, and healthcare professionals, and is staffed by master's level oncology social workers, nurses, and health educators. Patients, families, and professionals may call the IRC's toll free number at 1-800-955-4572. The Society's website, www.LLS.org, serves a variety of education and information needs.
(Grants and allocations $)	If this amount includes foreign grants, check here ► <input type="checkbox"/>	34,096,884
d Professional Education The Society serves the educational needs of the medical and research community through a number of professional education symposia offered throughout the year. The educational program offers varying formats to facilitate the exchange of information and ideas on the newest developments in cancer research and treatment.

Statement: The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, Inc. is organized for charitable, scientific and educational purposes, particularly to make grants of stipends to investigators through hospitals, universities and institutions for the study of and research into leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin's and non-Hodgkin's lymphoma and myeloma, and their treatment and care. Research applicants are reviewed by grant review subcommittees of the Medical and Scientific Committee and given priority scores. The Medical and Scientific Committee reviews the priority scores and approves funding based on scientific excellence for that research program. The Board provides prior approval for the specific research program and the budget to spend in research grants.
