Updated September 12, 2006

The APHA Fellowship in Printing History is a program providing an award of up to $2,000, for research in any area of the history of printing in all its forms, including all the arts and technologies relevant to printing, the book arts, and letter forms. The subject of research has no geographical or chronological limitations, and may be national or regional in scope, biographical, analytical, technical, or bibliographical in nature. Printing history-related study with a recognized printer or book artist may also be supported. The fellowship can be used to pay for travel, living, and other expenses.
