3. The declaration by the Members that a Member has missed three (3) consecutive meetings of the Members or a total of five (5) meetings of the Members during any one (1) calendar year.

A voluntary termination of membership shall be effective upon the giving of written notice of such termination to all other Members, if any, and to the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of the termination.

A Member's rights, powers, or privileges with respect to the corporation shall terminate on the effective date of the termination of the Member's membership in the corporation.

In the absence of such designation, regular meetings shall be held at the principal executive office of the corporation. Special meetings of the Members may be held at any place within or outside the State of Florida which has been designated in the notice of the meeting or, if not stated in the notice, or if there is no notice, at the principal executive office of the corporation. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, a regular or special meeting of the Members may be held at any place consented to in writing by all the Members, either before or after the meeting. If consents are given, they shall be filed with the minutes of the meeting. Any meeting, regular or special, may be held by conference telephone or similar communications equipment, as long as all Members participating in the meeting can hear one another, and all such Members shall be deemed to be present in person at such meeting.

Section 5.11 Annual Meeting. So long as there are any Members of the corporation, the members shall hold a regular meeting each year, for the purpose of appointing Directors of the corporation, and for the transaction of other matters. In case such notice is mailed, it shall be deposited in the United States mail at least (4) days prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. In case such notice is delivered personally or by telephone or telegraph, it shall be so delivered at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. Such mailing or delivery, personally or by telephone or telegraph, shall be due, legal, and personal notice to each Member. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section 5.14 Quorum and Required Vote at a Meeting. Presence of a majority of the then-admitted Members at a meeting of the Members constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws. Every act done or decision made by a majority of the Members present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Members, unless a greater number, or the same number after disqualifying one or more Members from voting, is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or by law. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present, including an adjourned meeting, may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Members, if any action taken is approved by at least a disinterested majority of the required quorum for such meeting, or such greater number as required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by law.

Such notice may be waived in the manner provided for in Section 5.13.

Section 5.16 Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Members may be taken without a meeting, if all Members shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of such Members.

Section 5.17 Compensation; Advance for Expenses. No Member shall receive any fee or other compensation for serving as a Member of the corporation. The corporation may advance money to a Member of the corporation or any subsidiary of a Member for expenses reasonably anticipated to be incurred in the performance of the duties of such Member so long as such Member would otherwise be entitled to be reimbursed for such expenses absent that advance.

ARTICLE VI: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 6.01 Powers. The activities and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by, and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of, the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate the management of the day-to-day operation of the business of the corporation to a management company, committee (however composed), or other person (i.e., Executive Director), provided that the activities and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board of Directors.

Section 6.02 Number of Directors. The authorized number of Directors of the corporation shall not be less than three (3). The authorized number of Directors shall be five (5). If there is at least one then-admitted Member of the corporation, then the Member(s) may, in his, her, or their discretion, by majority vote of the Members at a duly convened meeting of the Members, determine to increase or decrease the authorized number of members of the Board of Directors, but in no event shall such number be less than three (3). If there are no then-admitted Members of the corporation, the Directors may, in their discretion, by majority vote of the Directors present at a duly convened meeting of the Board of Directors, determine to increase or decrease the number of authorized members of the Board of Directors, but in no event shall such number be less than three (3). No reduction of the authorized number of Directors shall have the effect of removing any Director prior to the expiration of the Director's term of office.

Section 6.03 Qualifications of Directors. Each Director shall be a natural person at least 21 years of age. It is the intent of the corporation that the composition of the Board of Directors shall represent a diversity of technical skills to enable the Board of Directors to make informed, well-balanced decisions on the economic viability and social impact of its activities. Any Member of the corporation who meets the foregoing qualifications may be appointed as a Director of the corporation.

Section 6.04 Appointment and Term of Office. The term of office of each Director of the corporation shall be one (1) year. A Director may succeed himself or herself in office, and there shall be no limit to the number of consecutive terms a Director may serve.

If, at the time there is a vacancy on the Board of Directors, there is at least one then-admitted Member of the corporation, then the Member(s) shall appoint a Director to fill the vacancy at any meeting of the Members by vote of a majority of the then-admitted Members, whether or not the majority is less than a quorum, or by vote of the sole Member. If, at the time there is a vacancy on the Board of Directors, there are no then-admitted Members of the corporation, then the Board of Directors shall appoint a Director to fill the vacancy at any meeting of the Board of Directors by vote of a majority of the Directors then in office, whether or not the majority is less than a quorum, or by vote of a sole remaining Director. Each appointed Director shall hold office until his or her successor is appointed, unless the Director's position is sooner deemed vacated or the Director sooner resigns or is removed, all as provided in Section 6.05.

Section 6.05 Vacancies and Removal. A vacancy in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist on the occurrence of the following: (i) the death, incapacity, resignation, or removal of any Director; (ii) the declaration by the Board of Directors of a vacancy in the office of a Director who has missed three (3) consecutive meetings of the Board of Directors or a total of five (5) meetings of the Board of Directors during any one (1) calendar year; (iii) an increase in the authorized number of Directors; or (iv) the failure of the Members (or alternatively the Directors, if there are no then-admitted Members), at any annual or other meeting at which any Director or Directors are to be elected, to elect the full authorized number of Directors to be voted for at that meeting.

If there is at least one (1) then-admitted Member of the corporation, then the Member(s), by affirmative vote of a majority of the then-admitted Member(s), may remove any Director without cause at any regular or special meeting, provided that the Director to be removed is notified in writing in the manner set forth in Section 6.09 that such action would be considered at the meeting. If there are no then-admitted Members of the corporation, the Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors then in office, may remove any Director without cause at any regular or special meeting, provided that the Director to be removed is notified in writing in the manner set forth in Section 6.09 that such action would be considered at the meeting. Any vacancy resulting from the removal of a Director shall be filled immediately in the manner provided in Section 6.04.

Any Director may resign upon giving written notice to (i) all then-admitted Members of the corporation, if any, and (ii) the Chairperson of the Board, the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors of the corporation. The resignation shall be effective upon the giving of such notice, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of the resignation. If the resignation is effective at a future time, the successor may be appointed, in the manner provided in Section 6.04 to take office when the resignation becomes effective. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if there are no then-admitted Members of the corporation, no Director may resign if the corporation would then be left without a duly elected Director or Directors in charge of its affairs.

Section 6.06 Place of Meetings; Meetings by Telephone. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any place within or outside the State of Florida that has been designated from time to time by the Board. In the absence of such designation, regular meetings shall be held at the principal executive office of the corporation. Special meetings of the Board shall be held at any place within or outside the State of Florida that has been designated in the notice of the meeting or, if not stated in the notice, or if there is no notice, at the principal executive office of the corporation. Notwithstanding the above provisions of this Section 6.06, a regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors may be held at any place consented to in writing by all the Board members, either before or after the meeting. If consents are given, they shall be filed with the minutes of the meeting. Any meeting, regular or special, may be held by conference telephone or similar communications equipment, as long as all Directors participating in the meeting can hear one another, and all such Directors shall be deemed to be present in person at such meeting.

Section 6.07 Annual Meeting. The Board of Directors shall hold a regular meeting each year, for the purpose of appointing officers and, if there are no Members to make Director appointments, Directors, and for the transaction of other business. Notice of the annual meeting shall be given in the manner set forth in Section 6.09.

Section 6.08 Other Regular Meetings. Other regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such times as are fixed by the Board of Directors. Such regular meetings may be held without notice.

Section 6.09 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose may be called at any time by the Chairperson of the Board, the President, the Secretary, or any two Directors. Written notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be delivered personally to each Director or communicated to each Director by telephone, or by telegraph or first-class mail, with charges prepaid, addressed to the Director at the Director's address as it is shown upon the records of the corporation or, if it is not so shown on such records or it is not readily ascertainable, at the place at which the meetings of the Directors are regularly held. In case such notice is mailed, it shall be deposited in the United States mail at least (4) days prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. In case such notice is delivered personally or by telephone or telegraph, it shall be so delivered at least forty- eight (48) hours prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. Such mailing or delivery, personally or by telephone or telegraph, shall be due, legal, and personal notice to each Director. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any Director who signs a waiver of notice or a consent to holding the meeting or an approval of the meeting, whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior to the meeting or at its commencement, the lack of notice to such Director. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section 6.10 Action at a Meeting: Quorum and Required Vote. Presence of a majority of the Directors then in office at a meeting of the Board of Directors constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws. Every act done or decision made by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board of Directors, unless a greater number, or the same number after disqualifying one or more Directors from voting, is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or by law. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present, including an adjourned meeting, may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a disinterested majority of the required quorum for such meeting, or such greater number as required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by law. Adoption or revocation of a plan of merger; consolidation; voluntarily dissolution; bankruptcy or reorganization; or for sale, lease, or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation otherwise than in the usual and regular course of its business, requires the approval of two-thirds (2/3) of the authorized number of Directors of the corporation.

Section 6.11 Adjourned Meeting and Notice. A majority of the Directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place. If the meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four (24) hours, notice of any adjournment to another time or place shall be given prior to the time of the adjourned meeting to the Directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment. Such notice may be waived in the manner provided for in Section 6.09.

Section 6.12 Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of such Directors.

Section 6.13 Fees and Compensation. Directors and members of committees may receive such reasonable compensation, if any, for their services as may be fixed or determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. Directors, Members, and members of committees may receive such reasonable reimbursement for expenses as may be fixed or determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII: COMMITTEES

Section 7.01 Committees of Directors. The Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, designate one or more committees, each of which shall consist of one (1) or more Directors and may also include members who are not on the Board of Directors, to serve at the pleasure of the Board. The Board may designate one or more alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent member at any meeting of the committee. The appointment of members or alternate members of a committee requires the vote of a majority of the Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present. Any committee that includes voting members who are not on the Board of Directors may not be delegated the authority or power of the Board of Directors. Any committee whose voting members consist only of Directors, to the extent of the powers specifically delegated in the resolution of the Board of Directors or in these Bylaws, may have all or a portion of the authority of the Board of Directors, except that no committee, regardless of

Board resolution, may:

- (a) Approve any action that, under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, these Bylaws, or the Articles of Incorporation, requires the affirmative vote of the Members of the corporation.
- (b) Fill vacancies on the Board of Directors or in any committee that has the authority of the Board.
- (c) Fix compensation of the Directors for serving on the Board or on any committee.
- (d) Amend or repeal the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws or adopt new Bylaws.

- (h) Approve any transaction between the corporation and one or more of its Members or Directors in which the Member(s) or Director(s) have a material financial interest.
- (i) Bind the corporation in a contract or agreement exceeding the amount of $10,000.

Section 7.02 Meetings and Actions of Committees. Meetings and actions of all committees shall be governed by, and held and taken in accordance with, the provisions of Article VI of these Bylaws, concerning meetings and actions of Directors, with such changes in the context of these Bylaws as are necessary to substitute the committee and its members for the Board of Directors and its members, except that the time for regular meetings of committees may be determined either by resolution of the Board of Directors or by resolution of the committee. Special meetings of committees may also be called by resolution of the Board of Directors. Notice of special meetings of committees shall also be given to any and all alternate members, who shall have the right to attend all meetings of the committee. Minutes shall be kept of each meeting of any committee and shall be filed with the corporate records. The Board of Directors may adopt rules not inconsistent with the provisions of these Bylaws for the government of any committee.

Section 7.03 Executive Committee. Pursuant to Section 7.01, the Board of Directors may appoint one (1) or more Directors, one of whom shall be the Chairperson of the Board, to serve as the Executive Committee of the Board. The Executive Committee, unless limited in a resolution of the Board, shall have and may exercise all the authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation between meetings of the Board; provided, however, that the Executive Committee shall not have the authority of the Board in reference to those matters enumerated in Section 7.01. The Secretary of the corporation shall send to each Director a summary report of the business conducted at any meeting of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VIII: OFFICERS

Section 8.01 Officers. The officers of the corporation shall consist of the Chairperson of the Board, Vice Chairperson of the Board, President, the Secretary, and the Treasurer, and each of them shall be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson shall be Directors; other officers may, but need not, be Directors or Members. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. The Board of Directors may appoint, and may empower the Chairperson of the Board, the President or another officer to appoint, such other officers as the activities of the corporation may require, each of whom shall have such authority and perform such duties as are provided in these Bylaws or as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

All officers of the corporation shall hold office from the date appointed to the date of the next succeeding annual meeting of the Board of Directors, and until the successors to such officers are elected and qualified; provided that all officers, as well as any other employee or agent of the corporation, may, subject to any claim for breach of contract based on any contractual arrangements between any such person and the corporation, be removed at any time at the pleasure of the Board of Directors, or, except in the case of an officer chosen by the Board of Directors, by any officer upon whom such power of removal may be conferred by the Board of Directors, and upon the removal, resignation, death, or incapacity of any officer, the Board of Directors, the Chairperson of the Board, the President or another officer in cases where the Chairperson of the Board, the President or other officer has been vested by the Board of Directors with power to appoint, may declare such office vacant and fill such vacancy.

Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors, the Chairperson of the Board, the President, or the Secretary of the corporation, without prejudice, however, to the rights, if any, of the corporation under any contract to which such officer is a party. Any resignation shall take effect on the date of the receipt of such notice or at any later time specified in the resignation; and unless otherwise specified in the resignation, the acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

The salary and other compensation of the officers shall be fixed from time to time by resolution of or in the manner determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.02 Duties of the Chairperson of the Board. The Chairperson of the Board shall, when present, preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee and shall perform all the duties commonly incident to that office. The Chairperson of the Board shall have authority to execute in the name of the corporation all bonds, contracts, deeds, leases, and other written instruments to be executed by the corporation (except when by law the signature of the President is required), and shall perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 8.03 Duties of the Vice-Chairperson of the Board. The Vice-Chairperson of the Board shall possess the powers and discharge the duties of the Chairperson in the latter's absence or disability.

Section 8.04 Duties of the President. The President shall function as the General Manager and Chief Executive Officer of the corporation in administering the conduct of its business. Where appropriate, the Board of Directors shall place the President under a contract of employment. The President shall be responsible to and governed by the Board of Directors, shall report to and advise the Board on all significant matters of the corporation's business, and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board are carried into effect. The President shall be empowered to act, speak for or otherwise represent the corporation between meetings of the Board within the boundaries of policies and purposes established by the Board and as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The President shall be responsible for the hiring and firing of all personnel other than officers elected by the Board, and shall be responsible for keeping the Board informed at all times of staff performance as related to program objectives, and for implementing any personnel policies adopted by the Board. The President is authorized to contract, receive, deposit, disburse, and account for funds of the corporation in fulfillment of the corporation's objectives; to execute in the name of the corporation all bonds, contracts, deeds, leases, and other written instruments to be executed by the corporation; and to negotiate all material business transactions of the corporation.

Section 8.05 Duties of the Secretary. The Secretary shall record or cause to be recorded, and shall keep or cause to be kept, at the principal executive office and such other places as the Board of Directors may order, a book of minutes of actions taken at all meetings of Members, Directors, and committees, with the time and place of holding, whether regular or special, how authorized, the notice given, the names of those present at such meetings, and the proceedings of such meetings. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the Members, Board of Directors, and the committees of the corporation required by these Bylaws or by law to be given, shall keep the seal of the corporation (if any) in safe custody, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or by these Bylaws.

Section 8.06 Duties of the Treasurer. The Treasurer shall keep and maintain, or cause to be kept and maintained, adequate and correct accounts of the properties and business transactions of the corporation, including accounts of its assets, liabilities, receipts, disbursements, gains, losses, capital, retained earnings, and other matters customarily included in financial statements. The Treasurer shall deposit or cause to be deposited all moneys and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the corporation with such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse or cause to be disbursed the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, shall render to the President and Directors, whenever they request it, an account of all of the Treasurer's transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the corporation, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or these Bylaws. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the corporation a bond in the amount and with the surety or sureties specified by the Board for faithful performance of the duties of the Treasurer's office and for restoration to the corporation of all its books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of every kind in the Treasurer's possession or under the Treasurer's control on the Treasurer's death, resignation, or retirement, or removal from office. The corporation shall pay the costs of such bond.

ARTICLE IX: STANDARD OF CARE

Section 9.01 General. A Director shall perform the duties of a Director, including duties as a member of any committee of the Board on which the Director may serve, in good faith, in a manner such Director believes to be in the best interest of the corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like situation would use under similar circumstances. In performing the duties of a Director, a Director shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

- (a) One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the Director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;
- (b) Counsel, independent accountants or other persons as to matters which the Director believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence; or
- (c) A committee of the Board upon which the Director does serve, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the Director believes to merit confidence, so long as in any such case, the Director acts in good faith, after reasonable inquiry when the need therefore is indicated by the circumstances and without knowledge that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted.

Except as provided in Section 9.03, a person who performs the duties of a Director in accordance with the above shall have no liability based upon any failure or alleged failure to discharge that person's obligations as a Director, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any actions or omissions which exceed or defeat a public or charitable purpose to which a corporation, or assets held by it, are dedicated.

Section 9.02 Loans. The corporation shall not make any loan of money or property to or guarantee the obligation of, any Member, Director, or officer; provided, however, that the corporation may advance money to a Member, Director, or officer of the corporation or any subsidiary for expenses reasonably anticipated to be incurred in the performance of the duties of such Member, officer, or Director so long as such individual would be entitled to be reimbursed for such expenses absent that advance.

Section 9.03 Self-Dealing Transactions. Except as approved in Section 9.04 below, the Board shall not approve a self-dealing transaction. A self-dealing transaction is one to which the corporation is a party and in which one or more of the Members or Directors has a material financial interest or a transaction between the corporation and one or more of the Members or Directors or between the corporation and any person in which one or more of its Members or Directors has a material financial interest.

Section 9.04 Approval. The Board of Directors may approve a self-dealing transaction if the Board determines that the transaction is in the best interest of, and is fair and reasonable to, the corporation and, after reasonable investigation under the circumstances, determines that the corporation could not have obtained a more advantageous arrangement with reasonable effort under the circumstances. Such determination must be made by the Board, in good faith, with knowledge of the material facts concerning the transaction and the Member's or Director's interest in the transaction, and by a vote of the majority of the Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, without counting the vote of the interested Director or Directors.

Section 9.05 Indemnification. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the corporation shall indemnify its Members, Directors, officers, employees, and agents, including persons formerly occupying any such position, and the heirs, executors and administrators of such persons, against all expenses (including attorneys' fees and disbursements), judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any action, suit, or proceeding, including an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a Member, Director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation. Such right of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such person may be entitled apart from this Section 9.05. To the fullest extent permitted by law and except as otherwise determined by the Board in a specific instance, expenses incurred by a person seeking indemnification in defending any action, suit, or proceeding shall be advanced by the corporation before final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt by the corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of that person to repay such amount unless it is ultimately determined that the person is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation for those expenses. The corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance to the full extent permitted by law on behalf of its Members, officers, Directors, employees, and other agents, against any liability asserted against or incurred by such persons in such capacity or arising out of the person's status as such.

ARTICLE X: EXECUTION OF CORPORATE INSTRUMENTS, AND VOTING OF STOCKS AND MEMBERSHIPS HELD BY THE CORPORATION

Section 10.01 Execution of Corporate Instruments. The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, determine the method and designate the signatory officer or officers or other person or persons, to execute any corporate instrument or document, or to sign the corporate name without limitation, except when otherwise provided by law, and such execution or signature shall be binding upon the corporation. Unless otherwise specifically determined by the Board of Directors or otherwise required by law, formal contracts of the corporation, promissory notes, deeds of trust, mortgages, and other evidences of indebtedness of the corporation, and other corporate instruments or documents, and certificates of shares of stock owned by the corporation, shall be executed, signed, or endorsed by the Chairperson of the Board, Vice-Chairperson of the Board or the President and by the Secretary or Treasurer or any Assistant Secretary or Assistant Treasurer. All checks and drafts drawn on banks or other depositories on funds to the credit of the corporation, or in special accounts of the corporation, shall be signed by such person or persons as the Board of Directors shall authorize to do so.

Section 10.02 Voting of Stocks Owned by Corporation. All stock of other corporations or memberships in other corporations owned or held by the corporation for itself, or for other parties in any capacity, shall be voted, and all proxies with respect to such stock or memberships shall be executed, by the person authorized to do so by resolution of the Board of Directors, or in absence of such authorization, by the Chairperson of the Board, the Vice-Chairperson of the Board, the President, or by any other person authorized to do so by the Chairperson of the Board or the President.

ARTICLE XI: ANNUAL REPORT TO DIRECTORS

As soon as is reasonably practicable after the close of the corporation's fiscal year, the corporation shall provide to each of the Members and Directors a report containing the following information in appropriate detail:

- (a) The assets and liabilities, including the trust funds, of the corporation as of the end of the fiscal year.
- (b) The principal changes in assets and liabilities, including trust funds, during the fiscal year.
- (c) The revenue or receipts of the corporation, both unrestricted and restricted to particular purposes, for the fiscal year.
- (d) The expenses or disbursements of the corporation, for both general and restricted purposes, during the fiscal year.

The report shall be accompanied by the certificate of an authorized officer of the corporation that such statements were prepared without audit from the books and records of the corporation, provided, however, that if the report was in fact prepared with audit, the report shall be accompanied by a statement to that effect and shall include any pertinent report of independent accountants.

ARTICLE XII: MAINTENANCE AND INSPECTION OF CORPORATE RECORDS

Section 12.01 Maintenance and Inspection of Articles and Bylaws. The corporation shall keep at its principal office in this state, the original or a copy of its Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws as amended to date, which shall be open to inspection by the Members and Directors at all reasonable times during office hours.

Section 12.02 Maintenance and Inspection of Other Corporate Records. The accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors and any committee of the corporation shall be kept at such place or places designated by the Board of Directors, or, in the absence of such designation, at the principal executive office of the corporation. The minutes shall be kept in written or typed form, and the accounting books and records shall be kept either in written or typed form or in any other form capable of being converted into written, typed, or printed form. Upon leaving office, each officer, employee, or agent of the corporation shall turn over to his or her successor or the President, in good order, such corporate monies, books, records, minutes, lists, documents, contracts or other property of the corporation as have been in the custody of such officer, employee, or agent during his or her term of office. Every Member and Director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect all books, records, and documents of every kind and the physical properties of the corporation and each of its subsidiary corporations. The inspection may be made in person or by an agent or attorney, and shall include the right to copy and make extracts of documents.

ARTICLE XIII: FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the corporation shall run from January 1st through December 31st of each year.

ARTICLE XIV: CONSTRUCTION AND DEFINITIONS

Unless the context otherwise requires, the general provisions, rules of construction, and definitions contained in the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, as amended from time to time, shall govern the construction of these Bylaws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the masculine gender includes the feminine and neuter, the singular number includes the plural and the plural number includes the singular, and the term "person" includes a corporation or other entity as well as a natural person. If any competent court of law shall deem any portion of these Bylaws invalid or inoperative, then so far as is reasonable and possible (i) the remainder of these Bylaws shall be considered valid and operative, and (ii) effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion deemed invalid or inoperative.

ARTICLE XV: AMENDMENTS

Section 15.01 Amendment If There Are No Members. If the Corporation has no Members at the time a change to the Bylaws is proposed, the Bylaws may be adopted, amended, or repealed by the vote of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present. Such action is authorized only at a duly called and held meeting of the Board of Directors for which written notice of such meeting, setting forth the proposed Bylaw revisions with explanations therefor, is given in accordance with these Bylaws, unless such notice is waived in accordance with these Bylaws.

Section 15.02 Amendment If There Is At Least One Member. If the Corporation has at least one Member at the time a change to the Bylaws is proposed but the change will not affect in any way the membership of any Member or a then-existing right, power, or privilege of any Member, the Bylaws may be adopted, amended, or repealed by the vote of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present. Such action is authorized only at a duly called and held meeting of the Board of Directors for which written notice of such meeting, setting forth the proposed Bylaw revisions with explanations therefor, is given in accordance with these Bylaws, unless such notice is waived in accordance with these Bylaws.

If the Corporation has at least one Member at the time a change to the Bylaws is proposed and the change will affect the membership of any Member or a then-existing right, power, or privilege of any Member, the Board of Directors may adopt a resolution setting forth a proposal that the Bylaws be adopted, amended, or repealed and directing that the proposal be submitted to a vote at a meeting of the Members. If the Board of Directors adopts such a resolution, the proposal may be adopted by the vote of a majority of the Members present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present. Such action is authorized only at a duly called and held meeting of the Members for which written notice of such meeting, setting forth the proposed Bylaw revisions with explanations therefor, is given in accordance with these Bylaws, unless such notice is waived in accordance with these Bylaws.
