Animal Welfare Society, Inc.

2006 Program Service Accomplishments

Incorporated in 1967, the Animal Welfare Society has grown to provide the sheltering and care of thousands of homeless and stray animals each year. Special programming includes an expanding educational and volunteer program, obedience classes, rescue and adoption services, a behavior helpline, a domestic violence prevention program, and an affordable spay and neuter program. The Animal Welfare Society continues to be a driving force for the humane treatment of animals and for the care of so many homeless pets.

As an open admission facility, the Animal Welfare Society is pleased to have a placement rate (animals going home) that is considered extraordinary by national standards, and one that ranks among the best in New England. Last year the overall placement rate was 82%. 93% of our dogs, 77% of our cats, and 76% of our small animals all found homes.
