The President filed a 3 month extension until August 15th. Just as she was finalizing the returns, her border collie became critically ill and she spent his final week in the vet hospital with him to care for and comfort him. This return is being filed a few days after the extended deadline. She had called the IRS to get an additional extension, however it was too late to file it.

Request for Abatement of Penalty for Late Filing

Dear IRS:

I prepare 990 forms for three organizations: Earthtrust, Greenpeace Foundation and Flipper Foundation. Due to the death of my father in May, I applied for and received a three-month extension for filing the 990's. After I returned to work I began preparing the 990's. Unfortunately, my mother-in-law had a hip operation and I helped to care for her. In August just as I was days away from finalizing the forms, my border collie became critically ill following a cancer operation. I called the IRS and it was too late to apply for a second extension. After caring for Bing at home, we moved him to the vet hospital where I spent my days there to care for and comfort him. Each day I hoped he would be getting better and I could work on finishing the forms. However, he continued to deteriorate and I had the choice of finishing the forms on time or being at his side. I chose to be with him and we made it until a specialist could be brought in for the final diagnosis. Yesterday, after the ultrasound, we made the decision to say goodbye to him. I am finishing the forms today and ask that you do not penalize the organizations for my choice to delay getting these forms to you by a few days past the extended deadline.

Thanks for your consideration,

Sue White
