Society Handbook
(Revised 2008)

ARTICLE I. THE SOCIETY

Section 1. Name and History

The name of this Society shall be KAPPA DELTA PI, INTERNATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY IN EDUCATION.

Eager to promote a closer bond between students of Education, and to enter into more intimate fellowship with those dedicated to the cause of teaching as a profession—for which specialized preparation is deemed imperative—the members of the Illinois Education Club, established at the University of Illinois in 1909, resolved to sponsor the founding of a national society with local chapters similar to its own organization. Aiming to foster high standards of preparation for teaching, the Society would invite into its ranks those who had attained excellence of scholarship and distinction of achievement as students and servants of education.

Successful in its endeavor, the Illinois Education Club was organized on March 8, 1911, and incorporated on June 8, 1911, under laws of the State of Illinois, as the Honorary Education Fraternity, Kappa Delta Pi. In 1932, this title was changed to Kappa Delta Pi, An Honor Society in Education. In 1984, the title became Kappa Delta Pi, an International Honor Society in Education. Finally, in 2001, the title was shortened to Kappa Delta Pi, International Honor Society in Education.

Section 2. Purpose

The purpose of Kappa Delta Pi shall be to promote excellence in and recognize outstanding contributions to education. Kappa Delta Pi shall endeavor to maintain a high degree of professional fellowship among its members, to quicken professional growth, and to honor achievement in educational work. To these ends, it shall invite to membership persons who exhibit commendable professional qualities, worthy educational ideals, and sound scholarship, without regard to race, age, color, religion, sex, or disability.

Section 3. Private Inurement and Propaganda

No part of the net earnings of Kappa Delta Pi shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, its members, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article I Section 2.

No substantial part of the activities of Kappa Delta Pi shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Society shall not participate or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Constitution, Kappa Delta Pi shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on:

- a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal code,
- b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or
- c) by the Illinois General Not For Profit Corporation Act, as amended.

Section 4. Organizational Units and Members

The organizational units of the Society shall be the various chapters (See Article II). These chapters shall be composed of individual members of the Society whose rights and responsibilities are delineated in the Bylaws. Chapters of the Society shall not, in any way, infringe upon the rights and responsibilities of members granted under this Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 5. Governance

The Society fulfills its mission through the work of the Convocation, the Executive Council, the Headquarters Staff, and the work of individual members.

ARTICLE II. CHAPTERS

Section 1. Chapter Establishment

- 1.1 Chapters are established by charters granted by the Executive Council.
- 1.2 Each chapter shall be responsible to the Executive Council and shall adopt a document to govern its affairs that is recognized as a legal document by appropriate legal authorities (e.g., local, state, national law). ARTICLE X. FINANCES

Section 1. Dues and Fees

- 1.1 Each chapter shall collect from initiates the first annual chapter dues, and may assess a chapter initiation fee. These funds shall remain with the chapter for its operations. International Society dues and fees shall be set by the Executive Council. Annual increases to dues may not exceed 10 percent of the previous yearly dues without the expressed approval of the Convocation.
- 1.2 Each chapter shall remit to the Society Headquarters the required Society fee for each initiate. The required fee shall include the Society initiation fee and the initiate's first annual Society membership dues, as determined by the Executive Council.
- 1.3 The membership shall be billed by the Society Headquarters for the annual Society and chapter dues. The chapter dues shall be determined by the local chapter and submitted on the annual report.
- 1.4 Family Membership
- 1.41 Annual Family Membership may be paid when the following criteria have been met:
- 1.411 both or all are members of the same family.
- 1.412 they reside at the same address.

additional member; this fee to be determined by the Executive Council.

1.43 A family membership provides for only one copy of each every-member mailing.

1.44 A local chapter may, at its discretion, set conditions for chapter family membership.

1.5 Active Life Membership. Qualified members may become active Life Members of the Society by paying to the Society Headquarters the sum set by the Executive Council.

1.6 Honorary Membership. Fees for honorary membership shall be determined by the Executive Council. After one year of membership, continuing privileges will be offered upon the payment of an amount equal to Society annual dues, either by the sponsoring chapter or the honorary member.
