A Massachusetts charitable corporation

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

The Corporation

Section 1. Name and Purposes The name and purposes of the Corporation shall be as set forth in the Corporation's Restated Articles of Organization as adopted and filed with the Office of the Secretary of State of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (as now in effect or as hereafter amended or restated from time to time, the "Articles of Organization") pursuant to Chapter 180 of the Massachusetts General Laws, as now in effect and as hereafter amended, or the corresponding provision(s) of any future Massachusetts General Law ("Chapter 180").

Section 2. Articles of Organization These By-Laws (these "By-Laws"), the powers of the Corporation and its Board of Directors, and all matters concerning the conduct and regulation of the business of the Corporation shall be subject to the provisions in regard thereto that may be set forth in the Articles of Organization. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the Articles of Organization and these By-Laws, the Articles of Organization shall control.

Section 3. Corporate Seal The Board of Directors may adopt and alter the seal of the Corporation. The seal of the Corporation, if any, shall, subject to alteration by the Board of Directors, bear its name, the word "Massachusetts" and the year of its incorporation.

Section 4. Fiscal Year The fiscal year of the Corporation shall commence on July 1 and end on June 30 of each year, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Location of Offices of Corporation The principal office of the Corporation shall be located in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and shall initially be located at the place designated in the Articles of Organization. The Board of Directors may approve a change of the location of the principal office in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts effective upon the filing of a certificate or annual report indicating the new location with the Office of the Secretary of State of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The Corporation may establish and maintain offices in such other locations, within and outside of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II

Members

The Corporation shall have no members. No person now or hereafter designated by the Corporation as a "member" for any purpose shall be or be deemed to be a member for purposes of the Articles of Organization, these By-Laws, or for purposes of Chapter 180 or any other law, rule or regulation. Any action or vote required or permitted by law to be taken by members shall be taken by action or vote of the same percentage of Directors of the Corporation, except as may be otherwise required by applicable law or the Articles of Organization.

ARTICLE III

Board of Directors

Section 1 Enumeration, Qualifications The Corporation shall have a Board of Directors that shall serve as the governing body of the Corporation and serve, as may be required or permitted by law or the Articles of Organization, as its membership body. The Board of Directors shall consist of such number (but not less than the minimum number required by law), as shall be fixed, from time to time, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of Directors then in office. Directors shall possess such qualifications as may be determined by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of Directors then in office.

Section 2 Election of Directors, Term of Office.

Individuals shall be elected to serve as members of the Board of Directors upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of Directors then in office.

The members of the Board of Directors shall be divided into three (3) classes of Directors, each hereby designated as Class I, Class II and Class III, and each such class to be of approximately equal size, with the term of one class expiring each year at the Annual Meeting (as defined in Article IV, Section 1 of these By-Laws), or special meeting of the Board of Directors in lieu thereof. At each Annual Meeting the Board of Directors shall elect the appropriate number of successors to the class whose term is then expiring, each for a term of three (3) years. In the event the composition of the Board of Directors changes such that the number of Directors in each class is not approximately equal, the Board of Directors is authorized to elect additional Directors and, subject to Section 3 of this Article, assign Directors then in office to other classes to the extent necessary to maintain approximate equality in size among classes. Unless the Board of Directors specifies a different term at the time of election or appointment, each Director shall, subject to these By-Laws, hold office for the term of the class to which he or she is elected and until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified, or until he or she sooner dies, resigns, is removed or becomes disqualified.

Section 3 Term Limits. Unless a majority of the total number of Directors then in office shall otherwise determine, Directors may serve no more than three consecutive three (3) year terms. If a Director is elected or appointed to serve less than a three year term and his or her service is continuous, together with one or more full three year terms, then the Director's service during that partial term shall not be counted as part of the nine consecutive years of service for purposes of this Section 3. A Director who has served three consecutive full three year terms becomes eligible to serve again after one (1) year out of office.

Section 4 Vacancies Any vacancy at any time existing in the Board of Directors (including any newly created seats on the Board) may be filled by the Board of Directors at any meeting. If the number of Directors then in office constitutes less than a quorum of the Board, any vacancy on the Board may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of Directors then remaining in office or by a sole remaining Director. Unless the Board of Directors specifies a different term at the time of election or appointment, each successor Director shall hold office for the remainder of his or her predecessor's unexpired term and until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified, or in each case until he or she sooner dies, resigns, is removed or becomes disqualified.

Section 5 Resignation Any Director may resign by delivering his or her written resignation to the Corporation at its principal office or to the Chair, President or Secretary of the Corporation.

Such resignation shall be effective upon receipt (unless it is specified to be effective at some other time or upon the happening of some other event) and acceptance thereof shall not be necessary to make it effective unless it so states, provided, however, that the Board of Directors may act to accept such resignation immediately or at any other time sooner than the time specified by such resigning Director in his or her resignation.

Section 6 Removal A Director may be removed from office, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the total number of Directors then in office. A Director may be removed for cause only after reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard before the Board of Directors prior to action thereon. Each Director is encouraged to attend all meetings of the Board of Directors. Any Director who is absent from a majority of meetings of the Board of Directors in a calendar year may be removed by the Chair or the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Powers The Board of Directors shall manage, control and be responsible for oversight of the affairs and property of the Corporation, and at all times may exercise on behalf of the Corporation all lawful powers, rights and privileges of the Corporation under Chapter 180 and any other applicable law. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may from time to time establish committees and define or limit the powers and duties thereof, and thereafter may disband the same. The Board of Directors may delegate its powers, or a portion thereof, to committees that either consist solely of Directors or give voting power only to Directors on any such committee, except that the Board of Directors may not delegate the powers specified in Section 55 of Chapter 156B of the Massachusetts General Laws, including, without limitation, the power to.

- (a) change the location of the principal office of the Corporation,
- (b) adopt, amend or repeal these By-Laws;
- (c) change the number of Directors,
- (d) appoint, elect, suspend or remove Directors or officers,
- (e) authorize sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation,
- (f) authorize a merger of the Corporation, or
- (g) authorize dissolution of the Corporation.

Subject to these By-Laws and applicable law, the Board of Directors may authorize officers, attorneys or agents of the Corporation to act on its behalf subject to such limitations as the Board of Directors determines.

Without in any way limiting the foregoing powers, since it is the expressed purpose of the Corporation to maintain its status as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), including the regulations adopted pursuant thereto, the Board of Directors shall be further deemed to have all powers reasonably necessary to cause the Corporation to maintain its status as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

The Board of Directors may delegate to a committee decision-making authority with respect to the acceptance of real estate, including land or improvements, provided that the Board of Directors establishes policies defining the limits of the authority, the criteria for transactions, the procedures for managing conflicts of interest, and the timely notification of the full Board of Directors of any completed transactions. In the event such policies are adopted, the Board of Directors shall periodically evaluate the effectiveness of such policies.

The Board of Directors may not delegate to a committee decision-making authority to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of real estate, including land or improvements, held by the Corporation. The decision to sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of real estate, including land or improvements, held by the Corporation may only be made by a vote of two-thirds of all the Directors then serving. Any amendment, alteration or repeal of this provision requires a vote of two-thirds of all the Directors then serving.

Section 8. Compensation of Directors The Corporation shall not pay any compensation to a Director for service as a member of the Board of Directors, except that Directors may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their duties to the Corporation as approved by the Board of Directors. A Director, solely because of being a Director, shall not be precluded from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving reasonable compensation for any such other service.

ARTICLE IV

Meetings of the Board of Directors

Section 1 Annual Meeting The date, time and place of the annual meeting of the Board of Directors (referred to herein as the "Annual Meeting") shall be fixed by the Directors on any business day not later than the last business day of June of each year. In the event that no date for the Annual Meeting is established or if no Annual Meeting is held in accordance with the immediately preceding sentence, a special meeting of the Board of Directors may be held in lieu thereof and any action taken at such meeting shall have the same effect as if taken at the Annual Meeting.

Section 2. Regular and Special Meetings. The Board of Directors will meet regularly enough to conduct its business and fulfill its duties and will have at least three meetings per year. Regular meetings of the Directors may be held at such time and place as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors, provided that unless it is otherwise determined by an affirmative vote of a majority of the Board of Directors, all regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors, including the Annual Meeting, shall take place within a fifty (50) mile radius of the principal office of the Corporation. Unless otherwise required by law, special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chair, the President or by not less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the total number of Directors then in office.

Section 3. Notice. Unless otherwise required by law, the Articles of Organization or these By-Laws, notice of each meeting of the Directors shall be given to each Director at least five (5) days prior to the meeting in the case of an Annual Meeting or a regular meeting, and at least two (2) days prior to the meeting in the case of a special meeting. Notice shall be given (a) by the Secretary or, (b) in the case of the death, absence, incapacity or refusal of the Secretary, by the Chair or the President, or (c) at the request of the Secretary, or (d) by the Directors calling the meeting, by

- (i) mailing such notice to him or her, postage prepaid, and addressed to his or her home or business address appearing in the records of the Corporation,
- (ii) delivering such notice by hand, electronic mail or facsimile transmission or other means of written communication to his or her last known home or business address or electronic mail address or facsimile number appearing in the records of the Corporation, or

- (iii) giving notice to him or her in person or by telephone (provided that the person or persons that give any such oral notice shall certify in writing when such notice was given and such writing(s) shall be filed with the records of the meeting)

Notice need not be given to any Director if a written waiver of notice, executed by such Director before or after the meeting, is filed with the records of the meeting, or to any Director who attends the meeting without protesting prior thereto or at its commencement the lack of notice to him or her. A notice or waiver of notice of a Board of Directors' meeting need not specify the purposes of the meeting, except that any notice or waiver of notice of a special meeting or a regular meeting the purpose of which, at least in part, is to amend the Articles of Organization or these By-Laws, remove a Director, or consider an interested transaction involving the Corporation shall contain a general description of the business to be transacted at such meeting.

Section 4 Quorum Except as otherwise required by law, the Articles of Organization or these By-Laws, at any duly called meeting of the Board of Directors, the presence of a majority of the total number of Directors then in office and entitled to vote on any action proposed at the meeting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Each Director shall be entitled to cast one (1) vote on any matter that comes before the Board of Directors. Any meeting may be adjourned by a majority of the votes properly cast upon the question whether or not a quorum is present.

Section 5. Action at Meetings. At any meeting of the Directors at which a quorum is present, the action of the Directors on any matter brought before the meeting shall be decided by vote of a majority of those present, unless a different vote is required by law, the Articles of Organization, or these By-Laws.

Section 6 Action by Written Consent Any action by the Directors may be taken without a meeting if written consents thereto are signed by all the Directors and filed with the records of the Board of Directors' meetings. Such consents shall be treated as a vote of the Directors at a meeting for all purposes.

Section 7 Telephone Conference Meetings. The Directors may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time, and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Section 8. Proxies Prohibited Proxy voting by Directors shall not be permitted.

ARTICLE V

Committees

Section 1 Committees, Generally The Board of Directors, in its discretion and from time to time, may establish one or more standing or special committees (including executive, audit, finance, compensation, development, program, governance, nominating, advisory, and other committees) whose members shall include at least one (1) or more Directors, and thereafter may disband the same. Except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws, the Chair shall appoint the chair of each committee, unless the Board of Directors shall otherwise determine. The Board of Directors may approve the appointment of individuals who are not Directors to serve as members of any committee, except in the case of (a) executive and audit committees, the membership of each shall consist exclusively of Directors, and (b) finance, compensation, governance and nominating committees, in the event such committees are established, the membership of each shall consist of not less than a majority of Directors. Committee members shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. Committee members may be appointed for successive terms. Committees may exercise such authority of the Board of Directors to the extent such authority is delegated by the Board, subject to the limitations set forth in Article III, Section 7 of these By-Laws. The Board shall determine the duties of any such committee at the time of appointing members to the committee and may thereafter modify such duties as the Board determines. Unless the Board of Directors shall otherwise permit, each committee shall function under these By-Laws in accordance with the same rules as to voting, quorum, and notice, etc., as apply to the full Board of Directors.

Section 2. Quorum of a Committee, Action at a Meeting Except to the extent the Board of Directors may otherwise provide from time to time, a majority of the Directors then constituting the membership of any such committee shall constitute a quorum, except that when a committee shall have only one (1) Director, then one (1) Director shall constitute a quorum. When a quorum is present at any meeting of any such committee, the affirmative vote of a majority of those Directors present and voting shall be required to effect any action or to decide any question or measure presented to the committee, unless a larger vote shall be required by law, by the Articles of Organization, by these By-Laws or by vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Action Without Meeting Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of a committee may be taken without a meeting if all Directors then serving as members of such committee consent to the action in writing and such written consents are filed with the records of the meetings of such committee. Such consents shall be treated as a vote at a meeting of such committee for all purposes.

Section 4. Telephone Conference Meetings The committee members may participate in any committee meeting by the use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time, and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

ARTICLE VI

Officers, Agents and Employees

Section 1. Enumeration The officers of the Corporation shall be a Chair, a President, a Treasurer, a Secretary (referred to collectively as the "Primary Officers"), and such other officers, if any, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. The Corporation may also have such agents, if any, as the Board of Directors may appoint from time to time.

Section 2. Election; Term. The Primary Officers of the Corporation shall be elected or appointed to serve upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of Directors then in office. Unless the Board of Directors specifies a different term at the time of election or appointment, each of the Primary Officers shall be elected by the Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting or any other meeting of the Board of Directors and shall, subject to these By-Laws, hold office until the next Annual Meeting following his or her election or appointment and until his or her respective successor is duly elected and qualified, or until he or she sooner dies, resigns, is removed or becomes disqualified. his or her election or appointment and until his or her respective successor is duly elected and qualified, or until he or she sooner dies, resigns, is removed or becomes disqualified.

Section 3 Qualifications The Chair shall be a duly elected then serving member of the Board of Directors of the Corporation. Any two (2) or more offices may be held by the same person. The Secretary shall be a resident of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts unless the Corporation has a resident agent appointed for the purpose of service of process. Any officer may be required by the Directors to give bond for the faithful performance of his or her duties to the Corporation in such amount and with such sureties as the Directors may determine. The premiums for such bonds may be paid by the Corporation. Officers shall meet such other qualifications as the Board of Directors may determine from time to time.

Section 4 Vacancy Any vacancy at any time existing in any office may be filled by the Directors at any meeting of the Board of Directors and such successor shall hold office for the remainder of his or her predecessor's unexpired term and until his or her successor is chosen and qualified, or in each case until he or she sooner dies, resigns, is removed or becomes disqualified.

Section 5 Resignation Any officer or agent may resign by delivering his or her written resignation to the Corporation at its principal office, to any meeting of the Board of Directors, or to the Chair, President or Secretary of the Corporation, and such resignation shall be effective upon receipt (unless it is specified to be effective at some other time or upon the happening of some other event) and the acceptance thereof shall not be necessary to make it effective unless it so states, provided, however, that the Board of Directors may act to accept such resignation immediately or at any other time sooner than the time specified by such resigning officer in his or her resignation.

Section 6 Removal The Board of Directors may remove any officer, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the total number of Directors then in office at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors or a special meeting called for that purpose; provided, however, that an officer may be removed for cause only after reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard by the Board of Directors prior to action thereon. Each agent appointed by the Board shall retain his or her authority at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and each agent so appointed may be removed, with or without cause, at any time by the Board of Directors. All other agents may be removed, with or without cause, at any time by the Chair, the President or other officer of the Corporation.

Section 7 Chair The Chair of the Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors at which he or she is present. The Chair shall set the agenda for meetings of the Board of Directors, shall consult with the President, shall be entitled to vote, and shall have such other duties and responsibilities as may be assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors from time to time.

Section 8. President The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation and shall, subject to supervision of the Board of Directors, have authority to hire, terminate, and direct other staff members in the administration of the Corporation's affairs and have authority to manage the day-to-day activities of the Corporation. Unless the Board of Directors shall otherwise determine, the President shall serve as spokesperson for the Corporation. The President may, but need not, be a Director.

Except in those instances in which the authority to execute is expressly delegated to another officer or agent of the Corporation or a different mode of execution is expressly prescribed by the Board of Directors or these By-laws, the President shall execute for the Corporation any contracts, deeds, mortgages, bonds, or other instruments to facilitate the operation of the Corporation in the ordinary course of its business

The President shall periodically report to the Board of Directors, upon request, as to the position of the Corporation and the day-to-day operation of its affairs and activities

Such book or books shall also contain the original or attested copies of the Articles of Organization and By-Laws, and names and addresses of each Director, officer and committee member. The Secretary shall serve or cause to be served all notices of meetings, other than committee meetings, pursuant to these By-Laws. The Corporation shall at all times have a conflicts of interest policy to protect the Corporation's interests when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of a Director, officer, the member of a committee, or an employee or agent of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X

Personal Liability, Indemnification; Insurance

Section 1. No Personal Liability with Regard to Certain Obligations of the Corporation Except as otherwise provided by law, no incorporator, Director, officer, employee or other agent of the Corporation shall be personally liable for any debt, liability or obligation of the Corporation. All persons, corporations or other entities extending credit to, contracting with, or having any claim against the Corporation may look only to the funds and property of the Corporation for the payment of any such contract or claim, or for the payment of any debt, damages, judgment or decree, or of any money that may otherwise become due or payable to them from the Corporation.

Section 2 Indemnification. The Corporation shall, to the fullest extent legally permissible and only to the extent that the status of the Corporation as an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code is not adversely affected thereby, indemnify each Indemnified Person (as defined below) against all liabilities and losses, including amounts paid in satisfaction of judgments, in compromise or as fines, penalties, court costs, and Costs and Expenses (as defined below) incurred by, or imposed upon, the Indemnified Person in connection with or arising out of the defense or disposition of any Proceeding (as defined below) in which the Indemnified Person is or may become involved or with which the Indemnified Person may be threatened, while in office or thereafter, as a party, witness or otherwise, by reason of his or her being or having been such a Director, officer or other person designated above.

Costs and Expenses incurred by an Indemnified Person in connection with the defense or disposition of any Proceeding shall be paid promptly by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by such Indemnified Person to repay the amounts so paid by the Corporation if it is ultimately determined that indemnification for such Costs and Expenses is not authorized by law or under this Article. Such undertaking shall be accepted without reference to the financial ability of such Indemnified Person to make repayment.

If both the Corporation and the Indemnified Person are parties to a Proceeding (other than a claim, action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor), counsel representing the Corporation therein may also represent such Indemnified Person (unless such dual representation would involve such counsel in an actual or potential conflict of interest in violation of applicable principles of professional ethics), and the Corporation shall pay all Costs and Expenses of such counsel incurred during the period of dual representation.

The right of indemnification hereby provided shall not be exclusive. Nothing contained in this Article shall affect any rights to indemnification to which such Indemnified Person or other corporate personnel may be entitled by contract, by vote of the Board of Directors or otherwise under law.

Section 3. Definitions. As used in this Article, the terms:

- (a) “Costs and Expenses” means all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by an Indemnified Person in investigating, defending or appealing any Proceeding, including attorneys’, accountants’, experts’ and other professional fees and disbursements, reasonable compensation for time spent by the Indemnified Person on behalf of the Corporation during which he or she is not otherwise compensated by the Corporation or a third party, any premium, security for, and other costs relating to any costs or other appeal bond or its equivalent, whether such Proceeding is of a civil, criminal, arbitrational, administrative or investigative nature, whether formal or informal, including an action by or in the name of the Corporation. - (c) “Proceeding” means any threatened, pending or completed claim, action, suit or proceeding or any alternative dispute resolution mechanism (including an action by or in the right of the Corporation or an affiliate of the Corporation) or any formal or informal inquiry, hearing or investigation, whether conducted by the Corporation or an affiliate of the Corporation or any other party, and any other action that an Indemnified Person in good faith believes might lead to the institution of any such action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, arbitrational, administrative, investigative or other, including any appeal relating to any of the foregoing

- (d) “Related Entity” means any corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other entity or enterprise in which the Corporation is in any way interested in, or as to which an Indemnified Person is serving or shall have served at the Corporation’s request or on its behalf, as an officer, director, employee, agent, fiduciary, member, manager or representative including, but not limited to, any employee benefit plan or any corporation of which the Corporation or any Related Entity is, directly or

Section 4. Enforceability It is the intention of the Corporation that the obligations of the Corporation, and the rights and benefits of Indemnified Persons under this Article shall vest upon the date of the adoption of these By-Laws. It is the further intention of the Corporation to provide for indemnification in all cases under all circumstances where to do so would not violate applicable law (and notwithstanding any limitations permitted, but not required by statute) and the terms and provisions of this Article shall be interpreted and construed consistent with that intention. Nonetheless, if any term or provision of this Article, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, shall to any extent be held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Article, or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each term and provision of this Article shall be held valid and be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law. Any amendment, alteration or repeal of this Article or Chapter 180 that adversely affects any right of an Indemnified Person (or his or her respective heirs, executors and administrators), shall be prospective only and shall not limit or eliminate any such right with respect to any Proceeding involving any occurrence or alleged occurrence of any action or omission to act that took place prior to any such amendment, alteration or repeal.

Section 5 Insurance The Corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Indemnified Person against any liability asserted against or incurred by him or her in such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify or advance expenses to him or her against such liability.

ARTICLE XI

Advisory boards may be constituted of persons who are not Directors, but have an interest and willingness to advance the charitable purposes of the Corporation. Any advisory board may be discontinued, or any individual advisory board member may be removed, by the Board of Directors. An advisory board shall be required to make at least annual reports to the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XII

No Inurement of Assets or Net Earnings, Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses, Payments and Distributions

No part of the assets or the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its Directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered (a) to pay reasonable compensation for services actually rendered, (b) to reimburse reasonable expenses incurred on behalf of and for the benefit of the Corporation, and (c) to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the Corporation's purposes set forth in the Articles of Organization
