Form 990 Part I Section Summary Line 1 The organization's mission is to promote economic justice in the City of New York, by working with an array of community groups to press for equitable and sustainable community development, and to address inequities in the financial services system that impede community development and perpetuate poverty and inequality. NEDAP provides capacity-building and technical support to community groups; operates a financial justice hotline, community clinics, and a foreclosure prevention gap loan fund for low income New Yorkers; and coordinates several effective New York City and State wide coalitions that bring together diverse organizations to address community financial justice issues.

Form 990 Part IV Section B Line 11A The entire board of directors will review and approve the 990 prior to its submission.

Form 990 Part IV Section B Line 12 Written conflicts of interest policy All new board members and employees receive a copy of the organization's written conflict of interest policy, whereupon they sign a statement that they have received and understood the policy.

Form 990 Part IV Section B Line 12 Annual disclosure. Officers, directors and key employees of the organization are required to describe on an annual basis, or as they arise, any potential and actual conflicts of interest.

Form 990 Part IV Section B Line 13 The Whistleblower Policy is in place and adhered to.

Form 990 Part IV Section B Line 14 There is a record retention and destruction policy. The policy is carried out accordingly.

Form 990 Part IV Section B Line 15 Executive Compensation After the fiscal year end, the board of directors conduct an independent review of the organization's two executive directors' compensation, on an annual basis. The board approves executive compensation at the organization if it finds the compensation is reasonable. To determine reasonableness, the board considers such factors as compensation of executives with comparable qualifications at no fewer than three other organizations of comparable size, mission and scope.
