1 Briefly describe the organization's mission
To create a future of hope, sustainability, and dignity for the children of Haiti

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No
If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No
If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 580,966 including grants of $ 514,482) (Revenue $)
The organization's largest program service is the child and student sponsorship initiative. We pair individuals and families in North America with children and college students under the care of our partnering organizations in Haiti. With over 200 children sponsored and seven college students individually sponsored, this program provides funding and oversight for education, housing, nutrition, clothing, school supplies and other needful life skills development. The next largest initiative is the organization's college scholarship services through the Haitian Education & Leadership Program (HELP). The organization specifically funds the college education of twenty students. They attend one of the three accredited universities in Haiti - the University of Haiti, The University of Notre Dame and Quisqueya University. These students come from such poor backgrounds that a college education would otherwise be out of the question. In order to apply for a scholarship they need to not only come from the most impoverished situations but also have an A or A+ average in high school. The funding provides tuition, English classes, board, room, a small stipend, a computer lab and empowerment. Over the nine years that we have been in this program, 100% of those completing their college education are employed at salaries averaging $13,000 per year (over 30 times the national per capita income). The third largest program initiative in 2010 is the Chemen Lavi Miyò (Path to a Better Life) project through Fonkoze, Haiti's Bank for the Poor. This is the initiative that works to lift ultra-poor families (usually a mother with three to seven children) in the Central Plateau of Haiti out of ultra-poverty. Basic human needs are met, including health care. Clean water is provided, empowerment is given, an economic enterprise is made possible, and the children are enrolled in school. Over an 18 month process using a case worker model, families are raised up from desperate poverty to a position where they now qualify for micro-financing. In December of 2010, 116 of 120 families enrolled in 2009 "graduated" and are on the path to a better life. Though not an ongoing program service, the organization necessarily had to raise funds for emergency relief and the reconstruction of one of our partner homes in Haiti, the St. Joseph's Home for Boys in Port-au-Prince that was destroyed in the earthquake. Through this ministry, street children are given a family, education, housing and nutrition, and are taught leadership. $175,000 was raised for this effort and reconstruction has started.

4b (Code) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Form 990, Part III, Line 2	Form 990, Part III, Line 2 New Services	The January 12, 2010 earthquake compelled us into an emergency response on behalf of our partners. Because of the dire urgency of the situation and our longstanding grassroots relationships in the Jacmel area, we were able to efficiently and swiftly facilitate emergency medical relief, basic humanitarian relief, and provide temporary shelter for thousands. Lives were saved. Limbs were saved. Children received food, shelter and clothing. This specialized relief response lasted for a period of 90 days and was made possible by generous designated giving to our organization for such purposes. In the latter part of 2010 and at the request of the authorities in the Jacmel area, we oversaw a cholera awareness, prevention, and treatment initiative for the Southeast Department of Haiti. The primary target of our initiative was children, and the education piece of the initiative included hygiene and other precautionary and protective skills.
