Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
FIN 48 FOOTNOTE - ASC 740 INCOME TAXES	PART X, LINE 2	effective July 1, 2009, the company adopted the provisions of fasb interpretation no 48 ("fin 48") "accounting for uncertainties in income taxes - an interpretation of fasb statement no 109," now incorporated in accounting standards codification ("asc") 740 asc 740-10 clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement this section provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can be recognized in the financial statements only if the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority the assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged the company is exempt from federal and new york income taxation by virtue of being an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the internal revenue code and similar provisions of the new york state tax code nevertheless, the company may be subject to tax on income unrelated to its exempt purpose, unless that income is otherwise excluded by the code the tax years ending june 30 2008, 2009 and 2010 are still open to audit for both federal and state purposes the adoption of asc 740-10 did not have a material impact on the company's consolidated financial statements, as management determined that there are no uncertain tax positions within its consolidated financial statements compliance with the conflict of interest	part VI section B, line 12c	All Board members, officers, and managers are required to review the Conflict of Interest policy annually, and disclose any real or potential conflict of interest in response to a Conflict of Interest Questionnaire. The completed questionnaires are reviewed by the Audit Committee of the Board and the General Counsel/Secretary to the Board. In the event of a real or potential conflict, the Audit Committee of the Board and the General Counsel/Secretary shall enforce the Conflict of Interest Policy's requirement of recusal from participating in any deliberations and decisions relevant to the disclosures.

process for review of compensation	part VI section B, lines 15a and 15b	Each year, the Personnel & Compensation Committee of the Board - comprised of independent trustees - reviews the organization's compensation philosophy and works with an independent, third party compensation consulting firm to collect comparable market data to set appropriate salary ranges for each of the positions held by the Officers and Key Employees. In so doing, the Committee takes into consideration the competitive labor marketplace for such positions and the comparability data in the not-for-profit and the for-profit sectors. With respect to the CEO and the COO positions, the Committee takes into consideration only the comparability data in the not-for-profit sector. In addition, the Committee takes into consideration the internal value of the positions, including scope of responsibility and expertise required. At the Committee meeting, the annual job performance reviews for each Officer and Key Employee are discussed and any changes in the base compensation and/or any incentive awards as determined through Sesame Workshop's Targeted Incentive Program are reviewed and approved. The CEO's actual job performance is measured through a detailed survey completed by the members of the Board. The deliberations and decisions of the Personnel & Compensation Committee are contemporaneously documented. At the following Board meeting, the Personnel & Compensation Committee reports on its actions and further information may be provided to the full Board of Trustees.
