Form 990 Part III	3	During 2011 we changed our policy and how we evaluate cases that are part of our veterinary care program. The revised Policy is Pets of the homeless rely on our volunteers and veterinarians to screen and work with the homeless and their pets. The local veterinarian must agree to do the treatments at his/her costs and without staff salaries built into the cost or a minimum of 20% discount. The hospital/clinic must email or send us an estimate and a copy of their license to practice veterinary medicine if we do not have a current license on file. If we have the funds, we will help out if we don't the case will be added to our waiting list. We will contact you when we can approve the treatment for the case. You can then contact the pet owner and the hospital/clinic to set up the treatment. Once the treatment is completed the hospital/clinic can mail or fax us an invoice using
