The mission of American Values Action is to be an advocate for the traditional values of faith, family and free enterprise in the public policy arena. Program Service Accomplishments

In 2011, Gary Bauer and American Values Action held numerous briefings with conservative leaders, policy makers and reporters regarding SAFE – Securing America’s Future Energy. These meetings were designed to inform and educate the participants on the urgent need to develop secure, domestic sources of energy and to promote the electrification of the U.S. auto fleet.

In addition to promoting the goals of SAFE, American Values Action also partnered with Walmart to promote issues related to free enterprise, open markets and lower taxes. American Values Action provided educational materials and information to our network of grassroots activists concerning public policy developments and their impact on free enterprise.
