Primary Exempt Purpose

Primary Exempt Purpose

Women in Film & Video (WIFV) of Washington, DC is dedicated to advancing the professional development and achievement for women working in all areas of film, television, video, multimedia and related disciplines. WIFV supports women in the industry by promoting equal opportunities, encouraging professional development, serving as an information network, and educating the public about women's creative and technical achievements.

First Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

the DC region. Most members attend multiple events per program year. All WIFV programs are open to the general public and we had more than 700 non-members attend the Wednesday Ones, Roundtables, Resume Swap, ScriptDC and Media Job Fair. The meetings present industry leaders who share their insights and provide attendees with information to hone their skills to become better freelancers, employers and employees. Women of Vision Awards were presented to Patricia Aufderheide, Grace Guggenheim and Connie Day-McClinton to bring their technical and creative accomplishments to a public audience. In 2010, WIFV launched a fiscal sponsorship program to support women-created documentary films.

Second Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

Open House, Holiday Open House and three more informal events providing opportunities for more than 800 new and existing members to network with each other and non-members. The Annual WIFV Media Job Fair involved nearly 300 job seekers with 23 media companies and professional development companies.

Third Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

informs WIFV Members about professional development and educational offerings from WIFV and related organizations. The e-newsletter is archived on the WIFV website for general public access. The e-newsletter has dramatically expanded the amount of information it presents to members because of the electronic format and now includes live links to information and members profiled making the information even more accessible via search engines. WIFV also works with Human Factor LLC to create a PODCAST, THE SCOOP, for distribution to a general audience. Interviews with leading mediamakers form the basis of the podcast.

Other Program Service Accomplishments

Description	Grants And Allocations	Includes Foreign Grants	Program Service Expenses
Women in Film & Video (WIFV) Members provided valuable COMMUNITY OUTREACH FOR CHILDREN about media literacy through the KIDS WORLD FILM FESTIVAL (KWFF) that reached more than 200 DC, Maryland and Virginia 5th graders and their teachers. The students received media literacy training and participated in a film festival featuring a selection of short films from around the world that focused on issues of tolerance, conflict resolution and diversity. Fifteen WIFV Members were involved over the course of the program. The WIFV IMAGE MAKERS PROGRAM educates high school students about potential media careers as they are guided through the creation and production of public service announcements (PSAs) for area non-profits. Fifteen high school students and nearly 20 media professionals were involved in the 2010-2011 Image Makers productions for the Dachshund Rescue League of North America, the Dwelling Place and Our House. The Image Makers meet for 8-10 Saturdays in the early winter and culminates in a screening of the PSAs for non-profit participants, parents and volunteers.	0		4,848
