	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	A draft of the Form 990, together with all required schedules, is prepared by our independent auditors and is initially reviewed by the Executive Director and Controller. It is then forwarded to each member of the Board of Directors for review and comment. After these reviews, the final Form 990 is signed by the Executive Director on behalf of the Neighborhood House and submitted for filing with the IRS.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The Organization's Conflict of Interest Policy is intended to supplement federal and New York laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit organizations. Maintenance of the Organization's tax-exempt status is important for continued financial stability and public trust and support. The IRS and New York regulatory and tax officials view our operations as a public trust, which are subject to scrutiny by governmental authorities and members of the public. Consequently, there exists between Lenox Hill Neighborhood House and its Board, officers, managers and the public a fiduciary duty, which carries with it a broad and unbending duty of loyalty and fidelity. The Board, officers and managers have the responsibility of administering the affairs of Lenox Hill Neighborhood House honestly and prudently and of exercising their best care, skill and judgment for the sole benefit of Lenox Hill Neighborhood House. The Conflict of Interest Policy, Gift Policy and Disclosure Statement is reviewed, completed and signed annually by all Neighborhood House Directors, Officers and Management Employees. Directors, Officers and Management Employees are required to include on the Disclosure Statement any conflict of interest, financial or otherwise, that may be seen as competing with the interest of the Neighborhood House and are instructed that if any situation should arise that poses a conflict of interest, they will promptly and fully disclose in writing the circumstances to the President of the Board of Directors of the Neighborhood House. Any Director, Officer or Management Employee with a conflict of interest is required to recuse themselves from further participation in any decision-making involving the conflict. A description of the Conflict of Interest Policy, Gift Policy and Disclosure Statement is available on the Neighborhood House's website (www.lenoxhill.org).
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Board President and the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors sets the annual salary, including any additional compensation and benefits, for the Executive Director. The Executive Director, with annual review and approval by the Board President and the Compensation Committee of the Board, sets the salary and compensation and benefit levels for all key employees. In setting the appropriate levels of compensation, they review, among other things, the compensation levels at similar organizations in New York City, the Organization's need for the employee's expertise and their accomplishments on behalf of the Organization. In order to undertake this review, they utilize, among other things, an analysis of salaries in the IRS Form 990s of similar organizations and nonprofit compensation surveys undertaken by other organizations.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request. Most of the documents are also available on the organization's website (www.lenoxhill.org).
