Pt VI, Line 11a		A copy of the 990 is circulated to the board, and the board chair and treasurer review and approve the 990 before it is filed
Pt VI, Line 12c		Every board member is required to report in writing any conflicts of interest to the vice president of operations on an annual basis
Pt VI, Line 15		The process for determining the president's compensation consists of a performance review and deliberation done during an executive session of the board, a meeting that includes all board members except the President. The chairperson shares comparison wage data for the non-profit sector and facilitates a discussion about the president's job performance. The board approves the president's compensation and all deliberations and decisions are documented.
		Other employee compensation is determined by a process managed by the president with consultation from the vice president of operations. A starting salary for each position is determined from wage data for the non-profit sector. An annual compensation (wage increase) is presented to the board in general terms for budget approval in September, and in detail for review at the December board meeting. Minutes are recorded of all
