Form 990, Part III, Line 4d	Form 990, Part III, Line 4d Other Program Services Description	OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 4 The Supported Employment Program provides an array of services to support some 100 adults with developmental disabilities annually in successful placement in work opportunities in the community. Most clients' primary diagnosis is mild, moderate or borderline intellectual disability, autism, or Down syndrome. Program components include interest assessment and job matching, job placement, on-the-job training and support, and case management. Typical placements include work in the following areas: clerical, janitorial, grounds maintenance, and food service. OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 5 The Residential Services Program provides a variety of living arrangements coupled with in-home living skills training and support services for over 50 participants, the majority of whom have a diagnosis of mild to moderate intellectual disability. In addition to providing safe and comfortable housing at six locations in Los Angeles County, the primary goal of the program is to foster the highest level of independence through full and proactive home and community involvement. OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 6 The Developmental Activity Centers offer day programs for 170 adult clients with moderate to profound developmental disabilities at two locations: Culver City and Central Los Angeles. The program provides full-day services five days a week that include vital training in self-help, domestic, vocational, recreational, social and community use skills. Participants learn about personal grooming, cooking, taking public transportation and much more, all with respect for each individual's ability level. On-site practice is reinforced through community integration experiences in real-life settings such as trips to the grocery store to practice shopping, trips to community art fairs, picnics in the park, as well as a range of volunteer opportunities. Our Adult Day Program component offers similar instruction with more intensive one-on-one care for clients who require additional support. A Young at Heart component offers recreational, health and fitness activities specifically designed for aging adults and seniors with special needs. OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 7 The Art Center Program provides fine arts training, life skills and case management for disabled adults, the majority of whom have a diagnosis of mild to moderate intellectual disability, autism, or cerebral palsy. The Centers provide full-day programming five days a week to more than 130 program participants with professional art instructors in studio facilities at four locations: downtown Los Angeles, South Los Angeles, Culver City, and San Pedro. Art instruction is offered in a variety of mediums, such as water color, oil, pen and ink, printmaking and ceramics. Complimentary services include independent living skills, counseling and behavior management. Nationally recognized for its leadership in demonstrating that individuals with developmental disabilities often possess strong artistic abilities, many of the program's participating artists have won awards in juried shows throughout the country.
