In February 2012, the first-ever awards were presented to one individual and 20 organizations from across the U.S. who are leading the way in the management and reduction of GHG emissions-both in internal operations and throughout the supply chain. Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III	The Association of Climate Change Officers is a 501(c)(3) non-profit membership organization for executives and officials worldwide in industry, government, academia and the non-profit community. ACCO's mission is to define, develop and support the functions, resources and communities necessary for effective organizational leadership in addressing climate-related risks and opportunities. ACCO's primary program services in 2013 were the production of the Climate Leadership Conference and Awards (in support of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency), ACCO's own education and training conferences (including the Rising Seas Summit, Climate Strategies Forum, and Defense, National Security & Climate Change Symposium), and the launch of Future CCOs, a pilot post-graduate climate fellowship program. In 2013, ACCO began the transition from education through the dissemination of experiential knowledge to formal training in line with the CCO Certification program. In following years, this will make a substantial transition in ACCO's core program services. Additionally, ACCO provides its members with counsel, research support, access to publications and other support that are core to a membership organization. These activities are wide ranging and mostly conducted without meaningful cost or revenue, and thus are accounted for as other program services. Additional information on ACCO's programmatic activities is available at www.ACCOonline.org.

TY 2013 Reasonable Cause Explanation

Name: Association of Climate Change Officers

EIN: 26-4129991

Software ID: 13000241

Software Version: v1.00

Explanation: ACCO has endured substantial hardships due to the shutdown of the Federal government in late 2013. The result of that shutdown was the loss of nearly $150,000 in revenues to ACCO, which forced ACCO staff to spend an enormous amount of time taking steps to ensure that the organization would be able to move forward without layoffs of one or some of its 3 staff members, which would have crippled the organization.
