Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Center follows the authoritative guidance issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board clarifying the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entitys financial statements and prescribing a recognition threshold of more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination. Measurement of the tax uncertainty occurs if the recognition threshold has not been met. This guidance also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, disclosures and transition. The Center does not believe the financial statements include (or reflect) any uncertain tax positions. The Center conducts business solely in the United States and as a result, files tax returns for the United States and Illinois. In the normal course of business, the Center is subject to examination by taxing authorities. The Centers tax returns for years subsequent to 2008 are open, by statute, for review by authorities. At June 30, 2013, there are no ongoing income tax audits or unresolved disputes with the various tax authorities. The Center currently files or has filed with:
