1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

The primary purpose of Samaritan Ministries International (SMI) is to carry out the Biblical great commission of Matthew 28:19-20, by assisting the Body of Christ in making disciples, through the encouraging and facilitating of authentic Biblical community in obedience to the Word of God. The focus is on developing and administering creative approaches, in accordance with the Holy Bible, enabling Christians to minister to fellow believers who find themselves in physical and financial need in accordance with the Holy Bible. This includes encouraging prayer, emotional support, and direct and indirect gifts to those in financial need.

	Newsletter &amp; Health Care Sharing Samaritan Ministries International (SMI) is a religious community made up of member households dedicated to the Christian great commission and applying those principals in unique ways to meet the needs of our community, and by example, those of the greater community Membership is available to any and all professing Christians who are in agreement with our statement of faith and commitment to Biblical living without reference to age, physical condition, or prior ailments. The median income of SMI's membership is significantly below that of the national median. A significant portion of our members are subsisting on very low incomes, and almost all member households have no health insurance. Total membership households as of June 30, 2013, was 24,925, including 83,359 people. SMI has members residing in all 50 states as well as several countries abroad. A significant portion of the members are employed as church ministers and church staff, in para-church ministries and other charitable organizations. SMI publishes and distributes a monthly "Christian Health Care Newsletter", containing articles on various topics applying a Christian world view to all of life, spiritual issues, health care, the religious ministries of the organization, and the religious ministries of our members. The Newsletter seeks to educate and encourage members and other readers to apply Christian teachings to all aspects of life, not just health care issues. Part of that Christian mindset is helping the readers to understand that a sharing ministry's emphasis is on how they can give to help others now rather than what they might receive if they have a need in the future. This Newsletter is sent to all SMI members, nonmembers who subscribe for a nominal fee ($12) and complimentary subscribers. The Prayer Guide. The physical and spiritual needs of members and non-members, upon request, are published together in a "Prayer Guide", which is used by our members and the SMI staff for the offering of prayers on the behalf of those in need. This Guide also includes testimonies of how God has been working in members' lives. Each month up to 100 different versions of the Prayer Guide are prepared, and each member household receives one of the versions. The Guide averages about 25 prayer requests each, so over 2,500 prayer requests per month were being shared by the end of the fiscal year. It is mailed monthly to all the members. Prayer Team. A team of 169 volunteers from SMI's members and former members, including several SMI employees and one employee as coordinator, act as a "Rapid Response Prayer Team". The team averages one to two requests a day. Emergency prayer requests received from members are funneled by email to members of the team for immediate prayers to be lifted up. Health Care Sharing Share Slip. All members of SMI participate in the health care sharing ministry. Participants pledge to send a minimum monthly amount (called a "share") based on household size directly to those households who have medical expense needs that come within SMI's guidelines of expenses that we will share as a community. Each month members receive with their newsletter a "share slip" reporting a family with a medical expense need to whom they should send their monthly share, and for whom they should be praying and sending notes of encouragement. This fiscal year our members shared approximately $86,376,826 in accord with the minimum monthly amount pledged to be sent directly to those member households in need due to medical expenses. This sharing assisted our members with 14,825 medical incidents (injuries or illnesses) during the year. Additionally $531,330 was shared for medical incidents that exceeded $250,000 in cost. Because these amounts are sent directly, member to member, the amounts are not reflected in SMI's revenue or expenses. Members in need receive additional assistance by a variety of means beyond the regular sharing. Member Extra Direct Giving. In its monthly mailing SMI makes each member aware of expenses that some member had that fall outside our basic sharing guidelines, and encourages extra giving to meet that need. Since this giving takes place outside of the sharing ministry's normal procedures, SMI can only verify what recipient members self-report, which this fiscal year was $199,578.62. The total actually given would have been larger. Member Extra Direct Giving Through SMI. In addition to members giving extra directly to those in need, SMI encourages members to also give extra directly to SMI for SMI to distribute. SMI receives tax deductible gifts retained in SMI's restricted funds for helping members with medical expenses that fall outside the areas included in the basic sharing (e.g. routine dental). This fiscal year $241,681 was distributed to members in need from these restricted funds. There are also months where the member shares available is less than the amount of members' medical expenses, so members also give extra directly to SMI to make up any short fall. In fiscal 2012, $133,340 was distributed to meet these needs. Together this member extra giving assisted 908 families. Sponsorship. When members have financial problems which make it impossible for them to pay their minimum monthly shares, they are offered to participate in the "sponsorship" program, through which their share amount is reduced below that minimum normally required to an amount they can afford, or they are provided a cash grant to make up what they cannot afford to send. This fiscal year 175 families participated in this program, receiving 158,653 in assistance that was provided by reducing the amount of shares they were required to send, and 92 families received $15,840 in cash grants from restricted funds donated for this purpose. Volunteers. In addition to the Prayer Team Volunteers, one day a month 10-20+ volunteers come to SMI offices to assist with collating and mailing the 25,000 newsletters, prayer guides, share slips and other information to SMI members.

	Morning Center Activities	The Morning Center project to provide free maternity care to underserved women continued to progress during the fiscal year. This project is part of SMI's purpose of showing the love of Christ and spreading the gospel through providing a community of support to those in need. A website was developed (www.morningcentermemphis.org), a director and a certified nurse midwife for the Memphis Morning Center was hired, a contract with an obstetrician was signed, the mobile Morning Center van was equipped, and arrangements were being made with several sites in Memphis for seeing pregnant women. As the year came to a close it was envisioned that the Memphis Morning Center would be fully operational and seeing patients in August 2013 which in fact did occur. A separate not for profit corporation has been set up to operate Morning Center whose Board is chosen by SMI. The Morning Center Board had its first meeting in May 2013. SMI Support: The President of Morning Center is SMI Executive V.P. James Lansberry (10% of time devoted to Morning Center). The Treasurer of Morning Center is a full-time employee of SMI (70% of his time devoted to Morning Center), and the secretary and National Project Manager is a part time SMI employee (100% of time devoted to Morning Center). All of Morning Center's general office and administrative activities occurred out of SMI's headquarters with no charge to Morning Center. (Occupancy cost proration estimated at $18,000). Various members of the SMI Communication Dept. also worked on Morning Center projects on occasion. All monies donated for the Morning Center went for the direct expense of setting up the Memphis Morning Center or were transferred to the Morning Center account ($50,000) except for $1,332 in restricted funds at year end. SMI Employees doing work for Morning Center were paid from SMI's general funds. (By prorated allocation of time estimated at $64,350.) Almost all of the legal services of Morning Center provided through the firm of SMI's General Counsel were paid from SMI's general funds. ($5,922.25). The SMI Board had allowed the Morning Center a no interest line of credit with SMI of $100,000, which was full extended during the year but the balance of which was zero on 6/30/13.
