Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III 1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

Project HOPE is a global health education and humanitarian assistance not-for-profit organization. Project HOPE also publishes the leading journal on health policy, Health Affairs. Project HOPE focuses on health education and humanitarian assistance in these primary areas: non-communicable disease, infectious disease, women's and children's health, disaster relief and health system strengthening. In addition, HOPE supports the areas of focus through donated medicines and medical supplies, as well as volunteer medical assistance. Project HOPE also publishes the world's leading peer-reviewed journal on health policy, Health Affairs.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.4a (Code) (Expenses $ 189,219,820 including grants of $ 272,975) (Revenue $ 0)

HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE - The mission of Project HOPE's Humanitarian Assistance program is twofold, provide emergency assistance where disasters strike and strengthen health education programs and facilities with medicines and medical products. Our strategy is to provide emergency support and deliver medical products to an area affected by a natural or man-made disaster, leading to long-term access to vital medicines, supplies and health education, even after the attention of the outside world wanes. HOPE also supports our international health education programs with donated product - items like pharmaceuticals, medical supplies and equipment - supplied by some of the world's leading corporations. These products range from lifesaving antibiotics to sophisticated medical equipment used to teach the latest surgical techniques. Over the course of our history, HOPE has shipped over $2 billion in humanitarian assistance around the world.

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 61,573,297 including grants of $ 1,802,879) (Revenue $ 0)

HEALTH EDUCATION - Project HOPE helps to educate and train health professionals necessary to operate hospitals, clinics and community health programs in the poorest regions of the world. Programs range from the training of community health promoters in areas such as primary care, reproductive health, and maternal and children's health, to the establishment of highly specialized, tertiary care postgraduate medical programs in fields such as nursing and health professional continuing education. We use a "train the trainer" methodology in which local health professionals are taught how to teach others what they have learned through HOPE's programs. This approach has resulted in more than 2 million health care workers trained over the course of our history.

4c (Code) (Expenses $ 7,093,741 including grants of $ 41,600) (Revenue $ 2,736,944)

HEALTH POLICY - Project HOPE owns and publishes Health Affairs, the leading journal of health policy and thought research. The peer-reviewed journal appears monthly in print with additional daily online web exclusive materials. Published since 1981, The Washington Post has called Health Affairs the bible of health policy. All papers undergo external peer review and are authored by leading academics from fields that intersect with health policy such as economics, public health, sociology, political science, medicine and nursing, to name a few. Government policymakers and health industry decision makers from the U.S. and around the globe also write for and read the publication and its website. The Health Affairs Blog offers an inclusive and interactive dimension to the journal's timely commentary and analysis of health policy dialog. Health Policy Briefs provide a short history of a current health policy issue, an exploration of opposing views, an explanation of what is at stake and what the research says. Health Affairs is available via subscription and every article the journal has ever published is available free to online readers from the lowest income nations.

(Code) (Expenses $ 787,900 including grants of $ 10,517) (Revenue $ 0)

VOLUNTEER EFFORTS - In 1958, Project HOPE was founded through the efforts of dedicated volunteers to provide medical care, health education and humanitarian assistance to people in need through personal, people-to-people interactions around the globe. This humble yet heroic beginning, with the dedication and commitment of staff and volunteers, continues to inspire our organization for the future. Today, volunteers continue to play a vital role at Project HOPE working alongside staff members to jointly reach these goals. For more than 55 years, we have facilitated the expression of global compassion and generosity through volunteer engagement. We encourage this teamwork so that we can deliver the best services possible to our valued stakeholders. With a database of over 8,000 applicants, we offer a rich talent pool of diverse, skilled persons including doctors, nurses and other health professionals to ultimately help others help themselves, as we believe people working together through voluntary participation is essential for building and maintaining community and civil society. In 2014 alone, we delivered over 68,400 hours of professional volunteer outreach, valued at over $3.6 million dollars in donated service.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Discretionary Spending Account - The executive officers at Project HOPE receive a monthly auto allowance. The income is treated as taxable income and included in the total compensation. Housing Allowance or Residence for Personal use - The President and CEO receives a monthly housing allowance as part of his comprehensive compensation package. This income is treated as taxable compensation and included in the total compensation. On an irregular basis, it is necessary for the Foundation to provide housing facilities for certain employees, including the executive officers. Such housing is provided for the convenience of the Foundation at The Project Health Sciences Education Center when it is necessary for employees to be at the Center at irregular hours.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	Project HOPE's Management Development and Compensation Committee of the Board establishes the overall compensation philosophy for the organization including the relation of base salaries and total compensation to market and the components of total compensation. Additionally, it establishes the organizational and individual performance goals for the Chief Executive Officer. Annually, the said Committee reviews the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and recommends any compensation changes. At the same frequency, the Management Development and Compensation Committee oversees all aspects of compensation provided to other executives to ensure compliance with the intermediate sanctions provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. The Committee further prepares regular reports disclosing committee actions and recommendations to the full Board of Directors in performing their duties related to the determination of officer compensation, the Management Development and Compensation Committee relies on support from an independent external compensation consultant who has been engaged by the Committee. Overall, the Committee follows standard protocols and intermediate sanctions guidelines which include the three procedural requirements for earning the presumption of reasonableness: 1. Compensation actions are approved in advance by the Management Development and Compensation committee members, none of whom have a conflict of interest with respect to the proposed actions; 2. The board or committee obtains or relies upon appropriate data as the comparability of the compensation or fair market value of the consideration; and 3. The committee documents the basis for its determination adequately and contemporaneously.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	The Vice President New Business received a severance payment at the end of his employment.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 7	Officers are eligible to receive bonuses based on percent completion of their annual operating objectives. These bonuses are not fixed and may change based upon the level of performance of individual officers.
