Explanation: The organization only has two employees and relies heavily on volunteers. Several volunteers worked on completing the 990 for 2014. However, due to miscommunications, misunderstandings, erroneous assumptions, lack of communication, illnesses, departure of several of our volunteers and a major office move, the requests for extensions and the actual filing of the 990 never occurred. This only recently came to our attention when we received notice from the IRS that we had failed to submit the 990 for 2014. Steps are currently being taken to ensure that such a thing does not occur again in the future.
