Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 1a If organization elected under SFAS 116 to not report are, historical treasures, o	CollectionsInexhaustible collections include a live animal collection, a natural history collection, and other items of significance. The live animal collection is acquired through the appropriate channels with the appropriate state and federal permits. All other collection items have either been created internally by Museum staff or donated to the Museum. In conformity with the practice followed by many similar organizations and as allowed by ASC 958-360-25-3, the Museum does not capitalize its collection items. Accordingly, contributed collections are not recognized as revenues or gains upon receipt. Purchased collection items are expensed as incurred. In accordance with ASC 958-360-25-3, all collection items are subject to an organizational policy that requires the proceeds from sales of collection items to be used to acquire other items for collections.
Part III, Line 4 Description of organization's collections and how it furthers its purpose	Purpose of Collection ItemsThe Museum's collections include both live animals and natural history specimens. The live animal collection includes wild animal species native to California and a collection of domestic rodents, rabbits and non-native insects and spiders. The live animal collection is acquired through the appropriate channels with the appropriate state and federal permits. Live animals are never purchased or sold. The natural history collection includes approximately 16,000 objects, including animal mounts, skins, bones, wings, feathers, insects, spiders, botany, fossils, geologic specimens and Native American artifacts. Art, photographs, models and kits are also contained in the collection, although not formally accessioned. Where necessary, proper documentation and permits are maintained for restricted items. The live animal and natural history collections are maintained as a vital resource to support the Museum's mission to connect people with wildlife to inspire responsibility and respect for the world we share. The primary purpose of the collections is educational and the collections are used in exhibit hall programming, educational classes, programs, field trips and special events. The natural history collection is secondarily used for exhibit purposes as well as a reference for artists and for classroom teachers to complement their classroom curriculums.
Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	The Museum has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the Museum must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period(s) as well as board-designated funds. Under this policy, as approved by the Finance Committee and the Board of Directors, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce average annual returns which are appropriate in light of the endowment fund's time horizon, liquidity needs, risk tolerance and performance expectation.
Part X FIN48 Footnote	Income TaxesFinancial statement presentation follows the recommendations of ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under ASC 740, the Museum is required to report information regarding its exposure to various tax positions taken by the organization and requires a two-step process that separates recognition from measurement. The first step is determining whether a tax position has met the recognition threshold, the second step is measuring a tax position that meets the recognition threshold. Management believes that it has adequately evaluated its current tax positions and has concluded that as of June 30, 2014, the Museum does not have any uncertain tax positions for which a reserve or an accrual for a tax liability would be necessary. The Museum has received notification from the Internal Revenue Service and the State of California that it qualifies for tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. This exemption is subject to periodic review by the federal and state taxing authorities and management is confident that the organization continues to satisfy all federal and state statutes in order to qualify for continued tax exemption status. The Museum may periodically receive unrelated business income requiring the organization to file separate tax returns under federal and state statutes. Under such conditions, the Museum calculates and accrues the applicable taxes payable. The Museum had no unrelated business income during the years ended June 30, 2013 and 2012.
