Part VI, Section B, Line 11a: Copies of 990 are provided to Board members for review after filing. The 990 is reviewed by accountants assisting the Treasurer before filing and reviewed by at least one of the internal auditors.

Part VI, Section B, Line 12a, b, c: Policy being developed. Any potential conflict of interest is openly discussed at Board meetings and at the annual membership meeting.

Part VI, Section B, Line 14: Document retention policy being developed.

Part VI, Section C, Line 19: Documents are made available upon request by mail or email, and are also accessible on the Foundation's website. Financial statements are generally published in the bi-annual newsletter, which is mailed to members and is available on website.

Part IX, Line 17, 19, 24a: The Latvian Foundation Board meets twice a year, with monthly teleconferences. At the spring meeting the main agenda is to review and evaluate project proposals. Qualified grants are summarized, published in a newsletter and on the website, and mailed to voting members via regular or email. Members vote on the projects they want funded as well as for Board members with new or expiring terms. The fall meeting is a full member meeting, where the members endorse the voting results and approve the annual budget including the grant levels for the following year. After the fall meeting, a second newsletter documenting the annual meeting is prepared for membership. Board member candidates are selected from the Latvian community. Travel costs for these two meetings are considerable because Board members live all across North America.

Part XII, Line 2a, b: The Latvian Foundation bylaws call for three internal auditors. These auditors are voted on by the membership. The audit functions include a yearly audit of revenues and expenditures and the financial statements, as well as 990 filing. An audit report is presented at the annual fall member meeting. The auditors also monitor that Board and member actions are in compliance with bylaws and statutes, tally the votes of members for grants and election of Board members. On occasion, Foundation members who are accountants volunteer to assist with the audit.
