990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Section A, Line 4d	Now featuring over 700 individual listings of where to find good food, Good Food Finder is Arizonas most comprehensive online directory of local food At the 2015 Local First Arizona Foundation Food Farm Finance Forum, 132 farmers and producers, chefs and other local food buyers, economic development entities, local food system advocates, and students convened for two days to change the way our desert state feeds itself This years focus was on marketing and outreach, food aggregation and distribution, and access to capital and business development with an overall emphasis on building food hubs and collaboration 100 of forum attendees reported gaining valuable networking and coalition building opportunities And Arizona food producers and entrepreneurs connected with organizations that are specifically interested in funding sustainable food enterprises In 2015, Local First Arizona Foundation took full ownership of the Arizona FarmerChef Connection, an annual event with the mission of building wholesale business relationships between food producers and buyers The FarmerChef Connection has grown from being an intimate event to one that reached over 400 attendees of all kinds this year More than 50 of attendees were represented by buyers looking to set up direct wholesale purchase accounts with Arizonas food producers Additionally, buyers who attended this year depicted a wide array of those looking to procure closer to home, ranging from locally-owned restaurants like Mamas Hawaiian Bar-B-Cue to large-scale purchasers such as Costco, Frys, Aramark and Panda Express In 2015, Local First Arizona Foundation completed filming and published nine videos in series designed to build connections between consumers and local food producers These videos will be used to showcase Arizonas unique local foods industry and further connect individuals to the local food economy Local First Arizona Foundation staff hold serves on various following boards, commissions and working groups in food policy across the state to network with other food system advocates and local policy officials in order to affect change to increase access to healthy local foods in our communities and strengthen our food system 1 Arizona Farm to School Advisory Council 2 Arizona Hunger Leadership Council 3 Arizona School Garden Network 4 City of Tucson Commission for Food Security, Heritage and Economics 5 Flagstaff Food Link 6 Healthy Local Food System Working Group 7 Maricopa County Food System Coalition 8 University of Arizona Center for Regional Food Studies 9 Yavapai Food Policy Council As the states Rural Development Council AZRDC, Local First Arizona Foundation helps rural businesses become more competitive and reduce economic leakage from their place by providing business owners tools and resources including new technology training, marketing opportunities, and strategies for business development Additionally, AZRDC works to drive new dollars to rural places through increasing in-state tourism by leveraging arts and culture, Main Streets, and agritourism AZRDC also works to empower rural Arizonans to improve their access to healthy foods which has health and economic benefits for all residents AZRDC facilitates a statewide blog, which gets read 10,000 times per month, an email list of 3,030 subscribers and LFA has over 130,000 social media followers These resources are available for our rural businesses and community partners to promote and educate all Arizonans about all that rural Arizona has to offer Local First Arizona Foundation presented the annual Arizona Rural Policy Forum, a venue for connecting rural economic development professionals, nonprofits, community leaders, business owners, and other rural stakeholders who are interested in sustaining rural communities This years 9th Annual Arizona Rural Policy Forum convened 225 representatives from every Arizona County to participate in two and a half days of workshops, speakers, breakout sessions, tours and more Over 50 speakers from Arizona and 3 national leaders in rural economic development joined us in Clarkdale to share successes and best practices In order to give local businesses the tools they need to be competitive, the Local First Arizona Foundation conducts workshop and outreach initiatives for rural communities across the state focused on a variety of topics, including food entrepreneurship, marketing and communications, business best practices, and branding strategies In 2015, the Foundation launched Science Happens Here, an educational game for students grades 3 through 8 that includes collecting trading cards with science experiments on them The kids visit the locally owned businesses to collect the cards, each of which contains one example of science relating to that business The goal of Science Happens Here is twofold to help students to consider the science that happens in the world around them and to get the local business community more involved with STEM education The Local First Arizona Foundation Rural Technologies Program works with businesses in rural areas throughout Arizona to educate small and medium-sized businesses about digital marketing tools and how these tools can bring them closer to customers and business services located within their own communities Research has emerged that demonstrates that small and medium businesses in Arizonas rural communities are less connected to a network of customers, service providers or opportunities for collaboration within their own zip code, town, city or even the state of Arizona These Rural businesses are regular users of national, or international brands, of services FedEx, Kinkos online, Amazon simply because they are unaware of the print shop, shipping business or the retailer located within their own community And, because of this, these potential partners the local print shop, shipping business and retailer are going out of business, and their employees losing jobs, in areas where new businesses are substantially less likely to emerge or create jobs Local First Arizona is working to help these businesses move to inexpensive and easy-to-use digital marketing mediums that connect them with their local supply chain partners Local First Arizona provides training workshops, ongoing support information and launch assistance to these businesses about building a website, utilizing optimization tools, participating in social media particularly Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter and creating momentum that encourages their fellow business members and nearby rural residents to do the same LFAF has served 87 rural small businesses this year with new technology workshops and ongoing consulting for improved business connectivity and community
