Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The LIA and the Foundation adopted Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 740 ASC 740-10 clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement. This section provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can be recognized in the financial statements only if the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged. The LIA and the Foundation are classified as tax-exempt organizations under Sections 501(c)(6) and 501(c)(3) respectively of the Internal Revenue Code. Nevertheless, both may be subject to tax on income unrelated to their respective exempt purposes, unless that income is otherwise excluded by the Code. The adoption of ASC 740-10 did not have a material impact on the Organizations consolidated financial statements, as management determined that there are no uncertain tax positions within its consolidated financial statements.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 6	The Long Island Association is a Section 501(c)(6) chamber of commerce and business membership group that, by definition, has members. Members of the LIA enjoy a wide array of benefits, from participation on active committees addressing the major issues facing the region, to networking events large and small, to major events that attract former Presidents of the United States, as well as other nationally-known and respected speakers, to a variety of unique publications that provide special insight into Long Islands economy. Form 990, Part VI, Line 7 The Association's members are reserved the right in the Association's bylaws to elect those individuals that will serve on the Association's Board of Directors. Form 990, Part VI, Line 11 The Form 990 was prepared by a nationally renowned accounting firm in conjunction with the organization's financial department and was provided to the President/Ceo, the Chairman and the Chief Financial Officer prior to filing. It was also provided to the entire executive Committee of the Board of Directors. Copies are made available to the full Board of directors prior to its filing with the Internal Revenue Service.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12	The Association has a conflict of interest policy in place that governs the activities of the Association's officers, trustees and employees. Each officer, director, trustee and key employee is required to annually disclose any conflicts of interest that arise by virtue of employment, board service, or position with the Association. These questionnaires are reviewed to ensure compliance with the Association's conflict of interest policy. No conflicts have been uncovered within the covered year, to the extent any potential conflicts arise, the Association investigates them immediately.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Lines 15a & 15b	The Association's President & CEO's compensation is determined by the compensation committee of the Board of Directors and then approved by the executive committee of the Board of Directors. Since the President & CEO sits on the Board of Directors, he is required to recuse himself from any discussions related to his compensation. The President does not participate nor does he vote on his own compensation. For the Association's other officers, compensation is determined by the President & CEO and the Finance Committee.
