Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Community Engagement & Miscellaneous In order to achieve the four collective goals of the programs outlined in Part I, while representing the desires of the community, LIFT spends significant time and resources on engaging the community This focus includes the research, programs, and maintenance of metrics related to the process and progress of the goals Traditionally, interventions in poor or low-income neighborhoods have focused on identifying social problems and providing services to prevent or alleviate these problems with little attention to enhancing peoples strengths or capabilities

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Housing LIFTs goal for housing is to ensure the availability of high-quality, mixed-income housing that elevates the standard of living for low-income families, while providing the comfort of quality amenities that attract new residents To that end, LIFT has partnered to develop a mixed-income multifamily apartment community in the focus area In addition, LIFT provided a grant to a neighboring not for profit to fund the purchase and rehabilitation of an apartment community to further our collective goals to revitalize the neighborhood

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Education LIFT has continued to partner with several educational organizations in the focus area to create a seamless cradle to career educational pipeline LIFT supports education partners by fostering connections to other corporations and not for profits and by providing grants These partnerships provide classroom resources, advance the recruitment of qualified staff, support teacher appreciation and professional development opportunities LIFT also provided grants to help education partners improve facilities and enhance academic and athletic programs
