Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Partners is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by Partners in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Partners' returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed. CHIC, a for-profit subsidiary, accounts for income taxes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. These principles require an asset and liability approach to the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the consolidated financial statements or tax returns. Under this method deferred tax liabilities and assets are determined based on the difference between the consolidated financial statements carrying amounts and the tax basis of assets and liabilities using enacted laws and rates currently in effect. For the year ended June 30, 2016, CHIC has not recorded any tax liability or asset in its consolidated financial statements in the belief that these amounts would be immaterial.
