Part V, Line 4	facing history's permanently restricted endowment is managed so as to provide consistent, reliable support for the organization's programs and operating budget while it has enjoyed modest investment income and fund growth over the years, the endowment is invested conservatively so as to protect its principal and provide highly reliable income to the organization's operating budget

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Facing History accounts for the effect of any uncertain tax positions based on a "more likely than not" threshold to the recognition of the tax positions being sustained based on the technical merits of the position under scrutiny by the applicable taxing authority. If a tax position or positions are deemed to result in uncertainties of those positions, the unrecognized tax benefit is estimated based on a "cumulative probability assessment" that aggregates the estimated tax liability for all uncertain tax positions. Facing History has identified its tax status as a tax-exempt entity, and its determinations of which income is related and unrelated, as its only significant tax positions, however, Facing History has determined that such tax positions do not result in any uncertainties requiring recognition. Facing History is not currently under examination by any taxing jurisdiction. Facing History's federal and state returns are generally open for examination for three years following the date filed.
