Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

The EastWest Institute is a global network of influential stakeholders committed to and engaged in building trust and preventing conflict around the world. We engage on conflict prevention and resolution, providing thought leadership and strategic counsel to governments, the private sector and other stakeholders worldwide. We bring conflicting parties to the negotiating table, often for the first time, to find common ground. We anticipate global challenges and develop solutions relevant to policymakers and corporate leaders.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No
 If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No
 If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

CYBERSECURITY INITIATIVE - EWI leads the global dialogue to reduce conflict, crime, and other disruptions in cyberspace and promote stability, innovation and inclusion. Global cooperation is essential to successfully address existing and emerging conflicts - both in cyberspace and, increasingly, across all areas of human endeavor. To this end, the EastWest Institute began its cyber work in 2009 as the pioneer organization that initiated a global dialogue on cyberspace security, diplomacy and deterrence. Past successes have helped shorten repair times for damaged undersea cables, reduce spam on a global basis, and build bilateral confidence and trust between East and West to improve crisis response and combat malicious hackers. Working with government, business and civil society leaders from around the world, the institute's cyberspace program has highlighted three objectives: to promote improved defenses to act as deterrents by increasing the costs and reducing the rewards of malicious cyber activities, to advocate for limits on offensive cyber capabilities, and to enhance operational collaboration across borders and among adversaries. In 2018, the program will continue to develop and advocate for recommended changes in national and corporate policies and procedures. The principle means of developing these recommendations is through the work of five collaborative breakthrough groups, composed of decision-makers from key sectors around the world - Ubiquitous Encryption and Lawful Government Access - Secure, Resilient Cities and the Internet of Things - Systemic Risk and Cyber Insurance - Promoting Norms of Responsible Behavior in Cyberspace - Increasing the Global Availability and Use of Secure ICT Products and Services.
