Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities
 Congenital Hyperinsulinism International (CHI) is dedicated to improving the lives of babies, children, and adults affected by congenital hyperinsulinism. CHI provides education, information and support to families of diagnosed children and adults living with the condition. CHI works to promote knowledge and awareness of the disorder as it leads to timely diagnosis and decreases death and brain damage, better care and better neurological outcomes. CHI supports research and development for a better understanding of the condition, leading to a better quality of life, better treatments and management of the condition, and ultimately, a cure.

Name: CONGENITAL HYPERINSULINISM INTERNATIONAL

Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

CHI supports research and development to better understand, treat, manage and hopefully cure congenital hyperinsulinism. CHI shares the patient perspective with researchers, members of the pharmaceutical industry to encourage patient-centered treatments. CHI has created a grant program with the University of Pennsylvania's Center for Orphan Diseases. CHI is working to develop a patient registry that will include information that will foster research and knowledge of the natural history of hyperinsulinism patients.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

CHI advocates on behalf of families living around the world with congenital hyperinsulinism and supports them in their quest to access medical care, services, medication, and supplies they need to live a healthy life. CHI provides emotional support to families for whom the demands of the disorder take an emotional toll through online forums, by telephone, and by visiting patient families. CHI establishes funds at hospitals to support families from out of town who must travel for patient care.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

CHI increases awareness of congenital hyperinsulinism in order to improve timely diagnosis among the public and medical personnel who have a direct opportunity to detect it, to decrease neurodevelopmental outcomes and death. CHI works with volunteers around the world to spread awareness of the condition, distributes brochures to medical professionals, provides information on the CHI website and CHI social media channels about the dangers of prolonged hypoglycemia, holds events for the public, and works with endocrinologists to improve standards of care and early detection of HI. CHI provides educational resources on congenital hyperinsulinism to patients, families, medical professionals, school personnel, and other interested parties. CHI organizes conferences and meetings for patient, patient family populations, and interested medical personnel.

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

		Yes	No
1	Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2	Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

		Yes	No
1	Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

		Yes	No
1	Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2	Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization (s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3	By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Section E. Type III Functionally-Integrated Supporting Organizations

1	Check the box next to the method that the organization used to satisfy the Integral Part Test during the year (see instructions)
a	<input type="checkbox"/> The organization satisfied the Activities Test. Complete line 2 below.
b	<input type="checkbox"/> The organization is the parent of each of its supported organizations. Complete line 3 below.
