Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Corvilla was founded in 1959 and has been serving the disabilities community since our doors opened 51 years ago. One of the major components of that service has always been the importance of making sure our clients can reach their full potential. We currently operate 4 group homes for 28 clients located throughout the community. In 2016, to better serve our clients, we moved to a larger facility on 10-acres. Since the start of the expansion in 2015, Corvilla went from serving 28 clients and as of April 2017, serving 264 clients in St. Joseph and Elkhart county.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Day Services Program In 2016, we started a Day Services Program to provide training, education and life skills to individuals with disabilities in the area. Connections is a creative, fun, learning environment with adults who have intellectual and developmental disabilities. We have daily scheduled activities and monthly community outings. Staff meets in the mornings to prepare for the daily activities before the clients arrive. We then begin our day and create a positive atmosphere where our clients feel safe and free to participate in activities. We encourage client participation and leadership in daily events. Staff interact with clients and offer daily engagement opportunities. Connections allow clients to choose what activities they want to participate in, resulting in a productive day. Some Connections activities offered consist of the following: health & fitness, recreational (bingo, shake and canvas, Wii, & more!), vocational (art, technology, horticulture, essentials crafts, etc.), nature, music, and volunteer opportunities in our community. Future growth is expected as more individuals in the community seek out the Day Services Program.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Employment Services Program We also began providing an Employment Services Program to individuals with disabilities in St. Joseph & Elkhart counties. Corvillia is committed to helping individuals on their road to successful employment by providing the following services: vocational tests, job shadows, work experience, career exploration, resume writing, interview preparation, job search techniques, job development, on-the-job support, disability disclosure decision-making, and social security benefits planning. Our staff has almost forty years of combined experience working with job seekers with disabilities to acquire and keep jobs in the community. Our state and nationally certified Employment Specialists have areas of interest and expertise in working with job seekers with autism, developmental, physical, and mental health disabilities. Our staff assisted with the start of the National Project Search Program in South Bend and continue in our efforts to focus on students transitioning from high school to work. Our certified benefit counselors assist individuals to make informed decisions regarding their social security benefits and other assistance programs, and how they will be affected by working.

Part X, Line 2	The Organization is incorporated as a not-for-profit under the laws of the State of Indiana and is exempt from federal and state income taxes under the provision of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except for taxes pertaining to unrelated business income, if any, and is not considered a private foundation. Contributions by the public are deductible for income tax purposes. The Organization follows the accounting guidance for uncertainty in income taxes. The standard clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes by prescribing the recognition threshold a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. The guidance also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. Management believes the Organization has no material uncertainties in income taxes. The Organization files Form 990 in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the related form in the state of Indiana. With few exceptions, the Organization is no longer subject to examination for years before 2014.
