Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Orange County Communities Organized for Responsible Development (OCCORD) is a community-based organization that brings together workers, families and community partners to organize and advocate for good jobs, strong neighborhoods and an inclusive democracy in Orange County. We provide leadership development training to low income residents and workers, and we train residents and stakeholders on community organizing, participatory research, nonpartisan political reform, and land use planning and economic development policy. OCCORDs Anaheim and Santa Ana programs develop leadership and build organizational structures to engage residents and stakeholders in land use planning and economic development decisions that affect their lives. Through strategic, coalitional outreach, we train local and regional groups to work collaboratively, and through targeted, neighborhood-based outreach, we train new leaders and build sustainable organizational infrastructure in low-income communities of color. In 2017, OCCORD piloted a new program, the Muslim-Latino Collaborative, in response to the rise in anti-immigrant, anti-Muslim policy, rhetoric, and sentiment across the county and the nation. The MLC aims to combat the rise of hate against Latinos and Muslims and educate and organize communities to stand up for immigrants and people of color in Orange County. We engaged seventeen local community-based organizations representing Latino and Muslim communities, holding roundtable meetings to discuss shared priorities. We developed a leadership development curriculum for Muslim and Latino youth, Bridging Communities, and graduated a first cohort of 28 youth. We also held community town hall meetings in which members of both communities shared food, music, and learned about each others cultures. We hired a part-time coordinator to lead this effort. In Santa Ana, we continue to lead a coalition of residents and organizations to advocate against the sale of surplus public lands in the city. We supported the formal establishment of a Community Land Trust and a representative from our organization serves on its board of directors. OCCORDs Citizenship Program provides naturalization assistance and civics classes, as well as training and leadership development enabling immigrant workers and residents to become full participants in the democratic process. We work with local and regional organizations to provide these services to their members and constituents. In 2017, OCCORD organized nine large, volunteer-driven citizenship fairs followed by 8-week citizenship classes, plus 20 smaller clinics. We provided naturalization application assistance to 2,182 people, provided fee waiver assistance to 346 people, and partnered with more than a dozen organizations. Our volunteers ranged from those with no previous experience to some with professional level skills such as teachers, lawyers and paralegals. We also added a bilingual, bicultural Vietnamese citizenship organizer, to improve our outreach into Asian and Pacific Islander communities. All of OCCORDs citizenship services were provided free of charge to participants.
