Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The GoodCoin Foundation provided curation, communication, and donation services for the Cannes Lions Festival of Creativity event with a focus on gender equality, a topic of interest to the hosts and attendees. Through these efforts funds that would more generally be spent on promoting the event were allocated instead towards charitable giving, increasing the support for the nonprofit sector.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The GoodCoin Foundation enables City Bin, Inc , a for-profit company, to offer its employees a weekly opportunity to distribute corporate funds to charities picked by employees. This program creates a sense of larger purpose for the employees, deepens their commitment to the company, and is creating a community-wide effort to enroll additional local businesses in the giving program. The funds from this effort are distributed across a wide array of local charities. These funds were previously not available to the non-profit sector.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

The GoodCoin Foundation enabled a local coffee shop in Australia to provide their customers with new opportunities to give to more than 100 charities in and around Perth. This program created an incentive for customers to purchase coffee from Community Pod by linking their purchases to causes and charities customers cared about. In addition, it increased the number of donors to local charities, increased the communication between charities and donors, and created new opportunities for giving.
