Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities
The Law Foundation of Silicon Valley ("Law Foundation") uses the law as a tool for change to address problems linked to social injustices like poverty, discrimination and child abuse and neglect. Every day, the Law Foundation's attorneys, social workers and advocates craft inventive solutions to the life-changing legal issues facing low income people and families in Silicon Valley. The Law Foundation's team of over 80 attorneys, social workers and staff provide people access to safe and affordable housing, help secure stable homes for abused and neglected children and address a number of other issues including discrimination, domestic violence, special education access, disability rights and human trafficking. This year, the Law Foundation served over 12,500 individuals and families with free legal and social work services in addition to litigating and advocating for policy changes that improve the lives of low-income people and families across our region.

Name: Law Foundation of Silicon Valley

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Law Foundation is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by the Law Foundation in their federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Law Foundation's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.
