Data & Knowledge Services GuideStar provides custom support to various stakeholders working to research and report on the nonprofit sector. In 2017, we published the 17th edition of our annual compensation report and assisted many organizations in their research. We provided data and analysis on several topics to a number of media organizations, including the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Bloomberg, Fast Company, and NPR. Journalists incorporated this information into stories or used it as background to enhance the quality of their reporting on the nonprofit sector. GuideStar data served as the foundation for two reports published in 2017 addressing the financial health of the nonprofit sector, one report addressing the full United States nonprofit community and the second focused on nonprofits serving the Philadelphia area.

Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Web Program GuideStar is working to create tools to support decision making by nonprofit and foundation professionals. GuideStar believes the better people understand the philanthropic sector, the more effectively and efficiently it will operate, and the more support it will receive. In 2017, the GuideStar database comprised information on more than 2.6 million current and historic tax-exempt organizations, including 1.3 million 501(c)(3) entities. More than 9 million unique users visited our website to explore this information. Total website visits in 2017 exceeded 15.3 million. GuideStar continued to enhance its decision-making resources. GuideStar Charity Check, our pre-grant due-diligence tool, is 100% compliant with IRS regulations. GuideStar Premium and Pro give users deep and comprehensive research capabilities. In 2017, GuideStar introduced an annual data standard to its Nonprofit Profiles. Seals of Transparency will now reflect the year in which they are earned by the nonprofit. This change will increase incentives for nonprofits to share relevant and fresh data with the marketplace. GuideStar also refreshed the design of its profile pages to provide a better user experience. The refreshed profiles make pertinent nonprofit information easier to find. The online GuideStar Community doubled its traffic in 2017, connecting more than 21,000 registered users. The GuideStar Community allows our users and customers to more easily find solutions to issues and receive faster responses. More importantly, the community provides a space for community participants to engage with one another and share needs, challenges, and successes. It also is a forum that allows GuideStar to better understand the challenges faced by our users. The total product count for our Web Program includes "free" products offered as part of the Philanthropic Partnership (formerly "Membership") Program. However, Partnership revenue is listed separately on our financial statements.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Platform Programs GuideStar is working to disseminate high-quality information on nonprofits through as many channels for donations and grantmaking as possible. GuideStar works to ensure that nonprofit information is available whenever and wherever it is needed. In 2017, we improved our Application Programming Interfaces (APIs) to better facilitate data delivery to our partners and customers. Information in GuideStar Nonprofit Profiles powered 232 philanthropic websites and applications in 2017. Our data distribution network partners included Facebook, Volunteer Match, AmazonSmile, and the donor-advised funds of Fidelity, Schwab, and Vanguard. Hits to GuideStar data, via APIs and web services, totaled more than 13.5 million in 2017. GuideStar supports community foundations' fundraising and engagement efforts through the DonorEdge platform. In 2017, 17 community foundations used this service. GuideStar for Grant Applications (G4G) continued to build momentum with active adoption of the tool by five grants management software vendors and more than 40 foundations in 2017. The tool auto-populates grant applications with Nonprofit Profile data. It saves nonprofits time, enabling them to focus resources on their missions, allows foundations to improve grantmaking efficiency, and ensures grantmakers have up-to-date information. In 2017, GuideStar began rolling out a new tier for its platform products suite—plug-in products that allow a customer to embed GuideStar's core functionality into its own website by inserting a code snippet into a page on its site. The first product in this suite is the GuideStar Local Nonprofit Directory, which lets a community foundation or other grantmaking organization provide a nonprofit search limited to the location it serves. This product is ideal for smaller funders that have little or no technology staff and serve a defined geographic area. A parallel National Nonprofit Directory was also developed.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Nonprofit Profile Program GuideStar is working to create a common profile for nonprofit organizations. The creation of a comprehensive profile will help improve the nonprofit sector's efficiency. Nonprofits, foundations, and others will more easily be able to compare and benchmark nonprofits' programs, progress, and results. The GuideStar Profile Standard (GSPS) is updated annually and serves as a best practice guide for collecting and sharing information about nonprofit organizations. The GSPS applies to our Profile Update Program and determines an organization's qualifications for a Seal of Transparency. Nonprofits can earn Bronze, Silver, Gold, or Platinum Seals of Transparency depending on the amount of information they share. In 2017, GuideStar celebrated the one-year anniversary of the Platinum level of transparency which denotes nonprofits that share quantitative program results data. These organizations are empowered to tell their stories and explain their impact through programmatic metrics. Metrics can be drawn from the Common Results Catalog, the first sector-wide database of common programmatic metrics that GuideStar introduced in 2016. The catalog contains more than 755 common metrics applicable to different cause areas. As of December 31, 2017, GuideStar had 3.5 billion pieces of data, and more than 153,000 organizations had provided additional data for their GuideStar Nonprofit Profiles. Some 48,075 of these organizations had achieved the Bronze, Silver, Gold, or Platinum Seals. Of the 3,882 organizations that earned a Platinum Seal, 71% of their metrics came from the Common Results Catalog. In 2017, GuideStar continued to add new information to its GuideStar Nonprofit Profiles, including map-based geographic area served and organization logos.

In 2016, the total compensation package for the President and CEO no longer included an annual incentive based on achieving organization and individual objectives. Objectives are based on GuideStar's strategic plan. 3 The board has also set a goal that all GuideStar employees, including executives, receive market-competitive benefits. 4 For executives, a job description is reviewed each year and each GuideStar position is placed at a market-based salary point according to the competitive marketplace for that position and GuideStar's financial capacity. 5 To meet the "reasonable standard" of the IRS, GuideStar periodically hires an independent outside consultant to help determine as the IRS states "the value that would ordinarily be paid for like services by like enterprises under like circumstances." 6 During the course of the year, any change in compensation of the President and CEO is reviewed by the Chairman and approved by the Executive Committee. The President and CEO is responsible for annual performance reviews of all executive staff. 7 Base pay is reviewed based on cost of living, market place movement and GuideStar's financial status. The last compensation review was in February 2017.
