Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Technical Assistance Program Coupled with its loan products, the organization provides both pre-loan counseling to prospective applicants and intensive post-loan developmental services to its borrowers. Such assistance occurs in various forums: one-on-one counseling, group sessions, workshops, seminars, classes, exhibitions, and site visits. Many of the group sessions are conducted in collaboration with local community resources such as SBDC, SCORE, or the SC Women's Business Center, just to name a few. The organization views its one-on-one technical assistance as providing the foundation for the success of businesses. Through its individual bookkeeping and quickbooks training, marketing strategy, development, and site visit assistance programs, 164 businesses have received almost 734 hours in training and business development since the inception of the programs. During the year, the organization responded to over 4,671 informational requests, and of those, 1,747 were entrepreneurs who received some level of technical assistance. Of the total assisted, 425 individuals received information by attending one or more of the 58 presentations, seminars, workshops, or networking sessions offered.

Supplemental Information

| Return Reference      | Explanation  |
|-----------------------|--|
| Part X FIN48 Footnote | The Organization is a nonprofit corporation under Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from federal and state income taxes, unless income is generated from unrelated business activities. There is no unrelated business income for 2017. The Organization qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(A) and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2). Management is not aware of any transactions which would jeopardize their tax exempt status. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Organization and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be substantiated upon examination by the IRS. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Organization and has concluded that as of September 30th, 2017, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Organization is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. Management believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for fiscal years prior to 2014. U.S. state jurisdictions have statutes of limitations that generally range from three to five years. |
