PART V	Temporarily restricted net assets are comprised of funds the Center has received subject to donor imposed restrictions. These assets can be used for capital improvements, scholarships, and certain program costs. Permanently restricted net assets can be used for capital improvements, tuition and program needs.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
PART X, LINE 2	The Center is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Center qualifies for the charitable Contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization other than a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2). Accordingly, no provisions for federal and state income taxes are reflected in the accompanying consolidated financial statements. The Center annually evaluates all federal and state income tax positions. This process includes an analysis of whether these income tax positions the Center takes meet the definition of an uncertain tax position under the Income Taxes Topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Codification. In the normal course of business, the Center is subject to examination by the federal and state taxing authorities. In general, the Center is no longer subject to tax examinations for tax years ending before December 31, 2014. During December 2017, the President of the United States of America signed into law the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act. The law is generally effective for the tax years beginning in 2018, and therefore current tax liability for any potential unrelated business income tax will not be affected until the Centers year ending December 31, 2018. There are other changes to the tax law that may affect the Center, but the magnitude of such changes has not been determined.
