Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Central Care Mission annually served approximately 70 men in its housing program during its most recent fiscal year while continuing to make a significant impact on the homeless and those with alcohol and drug addictions in the Central Florida region. The programs residents receive, among other things, pastoral counseling, job placement, and other life training skills to ultimately achieve independence and a successful reintegration with the community. The Organizations mentoring program continues to make a significant impact with over 30 local businesses who instill new hope and purpose for these men. The Good News Program continues to provide a nutritious breakfast to approximately 150 homeless individuals every Sunday morning in the Metro Orlando area. This time also serves as an opportunity to provide information of all services available to these homeless individuals including those provided by Central Care Mission.
