Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities:
 The mission of the Oklahoma City Museum of Art is to "enrich lives through the visual arts." The Museum accomplishes this mission through its many activities. The Museum actively collects works of art and displays them in galleries open to the public. The Museum's permanent collection forms the basis for special exhibitions on art historical topics and is used to conduct research and disseminate new scholarship to the general public. The Museum hosts special exhibitions organized by other institutions permitting a range of subject matter and works of art outside the scope of the Museum's own collection. A diversity of educational programs-ranging from tours, classes, in-gallery experiences, and lectures-are geared to visitors of all ages. The Museum is accessible to individuals with physical and sensory disabilities. The Museum Film Program collects historic and contemporary arts of the moving images in addition to being the only cinema in the region showing independent, foreign, and r

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 1a	The Museum's permanent art collection, which has been acquired through contributions and purchases since the organization's founding, are not capitalized and recognized as assets on the consolidated statement of financial position. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in unrestricted net assets in the year in which the items are acquired or as temporarily or permanently restricted net assets if the assets used to purchase the items are restricted by donors. Contributions of collection items are not recognized in the statement of activities. Proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net assets classification.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 4	Special exhibitions, organized from the Museum's permanent collection or hosted from other organizations, are displayed on the first floor galleries. The Museum's permanent collection is displayed thematically throughout the second and third floors. The focus of the permanent collection is American art with particular strengths in post-war painting and sculpture, photography, studio glass by Dale Chihuly, and works on paper. The permanent collection also has strengths in European art and Nineteenth century American art. The collection advances the Museum's mission by permanent display of works of art for the enjoyment and education of the general public.
