Sched	dule H, Part I, Line 3c	National Jewish Health is a voluntary participant in the Colorado Indigent Care Program (CICP) and has modeled their Financial Assistance Policy after the program Pursuant to CICP guidelines, patients pay a minimal co-pay for care National Jewish believes charging a minimal co-pay causes patients to be a full participant in their healthcare plan National Jewish reviews income level, asset level, medical indigence, insurance status, uninsured discount and state regulation when determining patient financial need
Sched	dule H, Part I, Line 7	National Jewish Health conducts an annual study to determine the costs of all major programs. Through this study, which allocates specific costs across major programs, we determine the cost of clinical care. This ratio is multiplied by the total bad debt charges to determine cost. It is the same methodology used to determine cost of free and reduced care. National Jewish classifies accounts as bad debt at the end of the collection cycle once contractual adjustments and payments have been applied. An account is considered bad debt after all reasonable collection efforts have been made.

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Schedule H, Part III, Section A, Line 4	National Jewish Health does not have a footnote in the financial statements which describes bad debt expense. National Jewish is subject to not-for-profit guidelines rather than healthcare guidelines for financial statement reporting as National Jewish has historically had non-patient revenues, gains and other support in excess of patient revenue Patient payments received are netted out of bad debt in the calculation. Bad debt costs are estimated by multiplying actual bad debt write-offs for the fiscal year by the cost-to-charge ratio calculated from W/S C (grouping of total cost and charge) of the Medicare Cost report 1,952,000* 551=1,075,552. Schedule H, Part III, Section B, Line

National Jewish Health is committed to providing specialty care to seniors. Patients benefit from extensive time with their healthcare providers, multi-specialty care focused on the whole patient, comprehensive patient education, rehabilitation and thorough diagnostic work-ups and treatment. This care is expensive and many aspects of it are not reimbursed adequately from Medicare. Many patients come to us as a last resort. The ability to access our care without regard to the limitations of insurance is an important benefit.

to these patients and to their community

Schedule H, Part III, Section C, Line 9b	We screen for financial assistance policy (FAP) eligibility, we collect on account until approval for FAP, and then we collect on the discounted balance Schedule H, Part VI, Line 2	National Jewish Health assembled a team from within the institution to conduct the community health needs assessment. The team reviewed the Proposed Rules for the Community Health Needs Assessments for Charitable Hospitals and organized the review to create this summary. The group sought key information about the community demographics and health needs from various outreach governmental and non-governmental sources. The group then used its own knowledge of the institution and communicated with other people throughout National Jewish Health, including grant administrators.

> individual researchers, professional education, community and finance staff to identify and assess programs National Jewish Health has in place specific to identified community health needs

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Schedule H, Part VI, Line 3	National Jewish Health maintains a financial counseling department designed to help patients obtain needed assistance. The counselors inquire about financial need and educate patients on the various assistance programs available to them,including National Jewish's own financial assistance program and the Colorado Indigent Care Program. The counselors are available to assist patients in applying for need based programs and in establishing payment plans and options.
Schedule H, Part VI, Line 4	As a specialty hospital, National Jewish Health serves a community defined both by geography and by disease. The community was determined primarily by determining where patients came from and what types of illnesses have been treated. The main National Jewish Health campus is located in central Denver at 1400 Jackson St. As a nationally recognized specialty care center for respiratory, immune and related diseases, National Jewish Health serves both a local and national community. As a specialty hospital focused on respiratory, immune and related diseases, National Jewish Health serves a community defined by those diseases. Asthma represents the most common diagnosis among our patients, accounting for about 14,000 patient encounters. Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease, COPD, represents the second most common diagnosis, accounting for about 6,500 patient encounters. Cough, shortness of breath, pulmonary fibrosis, allergic rhinitis, food allergy and rheumatoid arthritis are other common diagnoses. We also treat patients with food allergies, mycobacterial infections, bronchiectasis, cystic fibrosis, lung cancer and other respiratory and immune diseases. Tobacco Addiction. Tobacco use contributes to many respiratory diseases, especially lung cancer and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease. Thus, tobacco.

addiction is an important contributor to the disease burden of our patients. National Jewish Health operates tobacco cessation programs for the Denver community and for 16 other states Obesity Obesity is a national epidemic, which contributes to worsening asthma, COPD and respiratory diseases in general

National Jewish Health operates a weight management program, FitLogix, for corporate clients and health

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Schedule H, Part VI, Line 5	National Jewish Health invests significant resources in meeting the healthcare needs of our community Since our founding over 117 years ago, when National Jewish was a free hospital for the care of indigent TB patients, National Jewish has been committed to meeting the medical needs of the under served in the community National Jewish is one of only a handful of outpatient clinics in the area that schedules patients for services on a first come, first serve basis regardless of ability to pay. All patients are provided a full scope of diagnostic and therapeutic services without regard to the patient's financial need. Our clinicians serve at multiple locations throughout the state in order to ease access to our services. As a teaching institution, our faculty educates and trains tomorrow's doctors, nurses and other healthcare staff Every year, National Jewish spends millions of dollars to conduct the full continuum of research from basic science to clinical application. National Jewish operates a K-8 school on our campus exclusively for chronically ill children with special medical needs. To our knowledge, it is the only school of its kind on a healthcare campus in the country. Overwhelmingly, the students at the school live in poverty and qualify for free or reduced lunches. National Jewish offers free lung testing around the country. We subsidize programs throughout the community including an inner city asthma program in the Denver Public Schools, an Asthma Tool Kit program for the western slope and a free asthma care and teaching program in lower income communities in Colorado. As a not-for-profit institution our Board of Directors, all of whom are community leaders, are heavily involved in the direction and strategies of furthering our mission 'to heal, to discover and to educate 'On April 8th, 2010, National Jewish was unanimously recognized by the

Colorado House and Senate for our vital role in serving the health needs of Colorado citizens

National Jewish Health audit of our financial assistance program to ensure compliance in March 2017 and identified the following shortcomings National Jewish did not keep records of any patients who may have been affected by the shortcomings identified in the audit All of the shortcomings were caused by the fact that responsibility for different pieces of the FAP were in different departments of National Jewish Section 1 501(r)-1-application period and Section 1 501(r)-6(b)-Because the majority of National Jewish's charity care is offered through the Colorado Indigent Care Program, National Jewish has historically made every attempt to mirror our financial assistance program to CICP regulations. Prior to June 2017, like CICP requirements, our FAP policy was to offer eligibility to patients for up to 90 days post-discharge Beginning in June 2017, we extended the application period for NJ FAP to 240 days past the date of first bill sent to our patients to assure compliance with 501(r) While it is possible that some patients experienced ECA efforts due to this delay, we believe that National Jewish's generous charity care policies, our coordination of billing and care efforts and the nature of our clinical programs make this highly unlikely. Section 1 501(r)-6(c)4-notification. National Jewish notified patients about our financial assistance programs in each new patient packet and on our website. National Jewish also works with patients prior to their visit to help them understand their financial obligations, to ensure that they have information regarding charity care programs and to qualify for charity care prior to their appointment. We included a conspicuous notice on each patient bill with a phone number to call the financial counseling department. Signs were not present in the admitting areas (we do not have an emergency department) and were added in June 2017. In June of 2017, a plain language summary Schedule H. Part V. Section B. Line 161-

was created. We have also added translations of our plain language summary to our website. National Jewish is widely acknowledged throughout the state as a charity care provider through notifications done as a part of the Colorado Indigent Program and our faculty's work at safety net clinics throughout the area During FY17, National Jewish did not include the method under section 1 501(r)-5(b) that was used to determine amounts generally billed (AGB) on the FAP. This was corrected in July 2017

National Jewish physicians provide care at safety net clinics throughout the area and ensure that these

National Jewish Health clinics are aware of that assistance that NJH provides Also, through a grant with the Kaiser

Foundation, National Jewish partnered with safety net providers to improve respiratory care for handful of metro-area hospitals who participate in the Colorado Indigent Care Program medically indigent patients and, through coordinators, worked with our safety-net partners to coordinate financial assistance and medical care for this population. National Jewish is also one of a
