Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

CCIH provides permanent affordable housing coupled with well-executed support services to people who are homeless or at risk to become homeless in Contra Costa County. Support services are individualized for each person or family in order to assist them to stabilize their health and housing and become as self-sufficient as possible. Adult services focus on mental and physical health, life skills, employment, parenting, and eviction prevention. Youth services focus on emotional and physical health, education, social and life skill building, good citizenship and preparation for adulthood. All services are accessible in that they are provided on-site at apartment complexes or in consumers' homes.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

CCIH provides permanent, affordable housing and on-site support services to formerly homeless and at-risk families and individuals. Supportive services programs assist families and individuals to stabilize in housing, improve self-reliance. Services include curated case management to fit the needs of every household, youth afterschool academic support and enrichment, life skills building (like budgeting and parenting), mental health counseling from licensed mental health professionals, and continuing education and employment support. In the last fiscal year, CCIH served 1,100 people.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

In the last two years, CCIH expanded its scattered site masters lease model. CCIH houses 48 formerly chronically homeless individual adults (many of whom are seniors) with special needs. Additionally, CCIH also housed 21 formerly chronically homeless families in the same scattered site model. A mobile service team of case managers provide services to ensure their stability, physical and mental well-being, and to assist them in retaining their housing and increasing life skills. The children in this program receive intensive academic support, and have access to mental health counseling.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

CCIH provides housing advocacy services for Contra Costa County residents diagnosed with HIV/AIDS. Advocacy includes emergency housing, housing location, rental assistance, ongoing monitoring of housing needs, case management, and eviction prevention support. During this period, 136 unduplicated clients were served.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	CCIH Board members and staff disclose conflicts of interest by completing the "Conflict Disclosures Questionnaire Form" on an annual basis at the beginning of the fiscal year and promptly when a new conflict is identified. This disclosure form requests individuals to identify their interests that could give rise to conflicts of interest, such as a list of family members, substantial business or investment holdings, and other transactions or affiliations with businesses and other organizations or those of family members as well as other nonprofit organizations. Board and staff are also urged to disclose conflicts as they arise and to disclose those situations that are evolving that may result in a conflict of interest. Advance disclosure must occur so that a determination may be made as to the appropriate plan of action to manage the conflict. Staff should disclose to the Executive Director and board members should disclose to the Board or Chairperson of the board as soon as they are aware of an actual or potential conflict of interest, holdings, and other transactions or affiliations with businesses and other organizations or those of family members as well as other nonprofit organizations.
