Part I, Line 1a:

AARP board members, officers, and key employees are provided the benefit of first-class travel on flights exceeding 5 hours when business class accommodations are not available. Directors may also use first-class travel if prior approval is obtained from the Corporate Secretary's Office due to medical reasons or for especially late-night arrival, or if approved by the Board Chair. The AARP Chief Executive Officer is provided the benefit of first-class travel on flights exceeding 90 minutes due to the extensive travel requirements of the position.

In 2017, 1 board member used first-class travel. All directors for AARP serve on a volunteer basis and are not compensated for their generous commitment to AARP. The officers, directors, and key employees are, however, reimbursed by AARP for travel and subsistence costs incurred in carrying out their duties. In addition, directors are reimbursed for travel and subsistence costs incurred for spouses/companions accompanying them to Association functions. The board members receive a gross-up payment to ensure there are no out-of-pocket expenses related to the income taxes for the spouse/companion travel. All spouse/companion travel reimbursements and issues, including utility rates, caregiving, and work and save programs.

AARP also advances our policy agenda at the national level through advocacy that proactively addresses issues important to people 50+, including caregiving, health, saving and planning, Social Security, and age-based discrimination. Underlying our policy agenda is the in-depth research conducted by AARP, which also provides a foundation for our program development and for the information we provide on key issues affecting 50+ Americans, including, in addition to those listed above, livable communities, work and careers, and more.

AARP offers training and education programs that help people 50+ improve their lives, such as AARP Driver Safety courses, technology education through the AARP TEK program, and local workshops and activities on matters such as preventing fraud.

AARP also facilitates the participation of 50+ Americans in bringing about positive social change in America. Initiatives include Create the Good, which connects individuals to a network of people, tools, and time-flexible volunteer opportunities; Andrus Awards for Community Service, which recognize people who have made a difference in their Member Acquisition's work is based on the recognition that members are an essential part of AARP's ability to achieve its mission. Speaking on behalf of its tens of millions of members gives AARP significant power and reach in advocating for social change at the local, state, and national levels. Members also provide grassroots activism, volunteer work, and input into the problems faced by Americans as they age, which helps shape AARP's social change agenda. Member Acquisition seeks to retain current members and provides outreach to potential members, including the many different segments of America's diverse 50+ population.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Annually, all board members and employees (including officers) are required to review the Code of Conduct, formally acknowledge their understanding of the Code, and disclose any real or potential conflicts of interest.

Disclosures are reviewed by appropriate management (or in the case of a board member, the Board Chair, the Corporate Secretary's Office, and if necessary, the Governance Committee), and the Ethics & Compliance Office.

The appropriate resolution plan is implemented (for example, recusal from participating in any deliberations and decisions relevant to the disclosure). The Ethics & Compliance Office monitors compliance (with the assistance of the Corporate Secretary's Office for board members) with these requirements and ensures proper follow-up as needed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

AARP considers relevant for-profit and not-for-profit data since this is the landscape in which AARP competes for talent. Establishing the appropriate compensation for positions and jobs considers external market pricing (where possible) from an independent, third party compensation consulting firm, internal criteria, and an individual's actual performance and contribution. Internal criteria is based on a standard approach that measures the internal value of positions, including: complexity and scope of responsibility, skill set and competencies, education and experience, and the reporting relationship of the position. An individual's actual performance and contribution is measured through AARP's performance management approach and then rewarded through AARP's annual base pay merit and incentive awards programs.

For the CEO, information from all three areas (external data, internal data, individual performance and contribution) is submitted to the Board of Directors for review and approval. In some cases, the Board may deal directly with the independent, third party compensation consulting firm on external market pricing. The individual in this position may have legal representation and may insist on an employment contract with terms that are mutually agreed upon by the individual and the Board.

For the Executive Vice Presidents (listed in Part VII), the compensation recommendations of the CEO are provided to the Compensation Committee together with external comparability data provided by an independent third party compensation consulting firm. The Compensation Committee reviewed and approved the 2016 recommendations and their deliberations were recorded in the Committee's minutes.
