Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Utilizing our online resources, and through national and regional media, the NCVB implemented advertising programs designed to promote awareness of the community as a desirable destination for meeting-related and leisure travel. The NCVB also worked through regional AAA outlets and other tourism organizations to promote the community. To further expand the reach of our advertising efforts, numerous radio and print media promotions were created to attract interest in the city, with the various winners receiving free trips to experience Nashville for themselves.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Through direct sales efforts, the NCVB marketed the city to the national meeting planning and group travel industries, to raise awareness of the attractiveness of the Nashville area as a convention and leisure travel destination. Through these efforts, the NCVB secured contracts representing over 1,800,000 hotel room nights for future meetings and events.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

In association with Music City Inc , the NCVB produced major musical events for the city that were free and open to the public over the July 4th and New Year's Eve holiday periods These events provide additional leisure products that attract visitors to the city

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The CVB follows FASB ASC guidance related to unrecognized tax benefits. The guidance clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an organization's financial statements. This guidance prescribes a minimum probability threshold that a tax position must meet before a financial statement benefit is recognized. The minimum threshold is defined as a tax position that is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The CVB has no tax penalties or interest reported in the accompanying financial statements.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Grants are primarily made to local non-profit organizations that carry out programs which further the exempt purposes of the reporting organization, in that they are engaged in activities designed to generate visitor travel to Nashville. The NCVB is an active partner in promoting these large scale events, and as such, is able to monitor the use of the funds in a very tangible way. Those grants that result from amounts approved by the Metro Gov't Event and Marketing Committee involve an independent application and interview process, and are ultimately approved by the Finance Director of the city of Nashville.

Part III Supplemental Information

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	The Board of Directors of the NCVC has authorized the President's spouse to travel and attend a limited number of business-related events each year, usually where spouse participation at an event is expected. If there is not a bona fide benefit to the organization, such travel expenses are treated as compensation. The organization also provides health and social club memberships for the CEO, which are also reported as compensation.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	See the process discussed in the explanation provided for Part VI, Line 15a.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	The organization participates in a non-governmental 457b deferred compensation plan for certain key employees. CEO - $18,000.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	After completion of our external CPA audit, the Form 990 is prepared internally by the professional accounting staff of the organization utilizing current reference resources. The methodology used in the process has been reviewed by our external CPA firm and other qualified consultants for completeness and reasonableness. The form is then made available for review by any board members that wish to review it prior to filing.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	The board-adopted Conflict of Interest Policy is reviewed annually with all board members and key staff. Each of these individuals completes a survey annually on which they are to disclose any situations that might give rise to any actual or perceived conflicts as defined by the policy. These surveys are reviewed by the leadership and key staff of the organization who are involved in reviewing all financial transactions of the organization.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The board of directors of the organization hires the President/CEO. This person is then reviewed annually by the Compensation Committee of the Board. In addition to performance against established measurements, this review includes an analysis of compensation. In making this analysis, the committee obtains comparable compensation data from multiple sources, including national surveys, data reported on comparable DMO Form 990s, and industry executive placement sources. Based then on performance and comparable industry data, the committee sets the President's compensation for the coming year. The compensation of other key employees is then established by the President, utilizing industry comparison data as well, within guidelines established by the Board-approved operating budget.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	In general, other than as required by IRS regulations, the organization does not routinely make its governing documents and internal policies available to the general public. The organization does submit a copy of its annual audited financial statements to the Metropolitan Government of Nashville as required by contract.
