Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

ADVOCACY & POLICY We are committed to making New York a better place to age. To ensure that happens, we advocate for older people and aging services and develop policy initiatives to address unmet needs. Every area of our advocacy and public policy links with our programs and is conducted in collaboration with partners so that we can maximize and leverage resources. City and State Budget ENGAGING AND EDUCATING POLICY MAKERS AND ALL NEW YORKERS TO SHAPE POLICY IN SUPPORT OF OLDER ADULTS We are thrilled to report that after a long and coordinated advocacy campaign at the City level, the New York City Department for the Aging received a baselined funding increase of nearly $23 million in 2017. This is the largest and most significant increase in over 15 years and is owed to the yearlong, multipronged campaign, through which we sent over 40,000 letters from seniors to City and State officials to advocate for the increase. Also part of this process was our 22nd Annual City Hall Advocacy Day held in May 2017 which brought 350 older adults to City Hall to educate 51 NYC Councilmembers and advocate for the Year of the Senior in the city budget. Throughout the City Advocacy Campaign, we worked closely with City Council Aging Chair Margaret Chin and Senior Center Chair Paul Vallone, DFTA Commissioner Donna Corrado and stakeholders within the Mayors Office. We are also excited to report that after working hard to represent the need of aging services at the City level and alongside partners including the Human Services Council, the City Council passed the Nonprofit Sector Investments to a) undertake a model budget process for program areas whose budgets have not been systematically assessed against programmatic outcomes and cost, b) provide additional funding for indirect rates to ensure that city agency policies are fully funded at a minimum of 10% and c) provide a 6-12% wage increase to about 90,000 contracted employees of the human service sector. LiveOn continues to represent aging services so that contractual and operational issues are addressed at the City level. Elder Abuse Victims and Prevention Services CHANGING SYSTEMS TO PREVENT ABUSE Elder Abuse Victims and Prevention Services. This policy-focused initiative works closely with City funded elder abuse service providers to understand what policies must be in place to build protections against abuse. Thanks to our advocacy, the City tripled its funding for elder abuse services over the last three years, from $800,000 to a baselined $3.5 million. Our advocacy led to the appointment of two NYPD officials to work on elder abuse. Also for the first time and in recognition of World Elder Abuse Awareness Day (WEAAD), eighteen different precincts throughout the five boroughs partnered with community based agencies, as part of their public service. Additionally, the NYPD Training Division is working with LiveOn NY to develop a training video on Elder Abuse, which will be shown during Roll Call and other NYPD trainings to officers. Lastly, LiveOn NY and our Elder Abuse Coalition have started to work with Debra Kaplan from the Office of the Statewide Coordinating Judge for Family Violence Cases due to the increase in elder abuse victims being seen in court and in recognition that older women have different needs. Affordable Senior Housing IDENTIFYING NEEDS AND IMPACTING POLICY The Initiative is comprised of an Affordable Senior Housing Coalition made up of 25 of the citys leading nonprofit senior housing with services providers. The Coalition is taking a leading role having developed and operating upwards of 20,000 units of low income housing citywide and is working daily to ensure the city and state elevate affordable senior housing with services as a priority through preservation, production and policy. Our release of a study that showed there are an estimated 200,000 seniors citywide on waitlists for affordable senior housing waiting on the average of 7 years. Additionally, LiveOn NY was instrumental in the recent historical passage of the citywide Zoning for Quality and Affordability (ZQA) text amendment which contains key provisions to modernize the 60-year old zoning code with a specific focus on making it more flexible to build affordable senior housing. In the last year, we are thrilled to report, we reached a huge victory at the State level resulting in $125 million towards capital funding for affordable senior housing development. CAPACITY BUILDING & TRAINING INITIATIVES The goal of our capacity building and training remains to help aging service programs better manage their organizations so that they can be an infrastructure that allows older New Yorkers to age with confidence, grace and vitality. Comprised of management assistance workshops, technical assistance, educational trainings, an Annual Conference and numerous events, this work supports and improves the knowledge and practices of senior service providers. Trainings bring new ideas and innovative concepts to professionals whom would otherwise lack the resources to obtain them. The overall goal is to equip professionals with the necessary tools, skills and information to more effectively serve the growing older adult population and to enhance the efficiency of the aging services delivery system. In the last year, we continued to offer expanded services through webinar, in-person and group trainings. We have found that this allows staffers from across New York State to participate, as well as those who cannot leave their office. To accomplish this continued expansion, we provided more online trainings and collaborated with more partners to co-host and cross-promote trainings, with a goal to train more people who might be working with older adults but not within traditional aging services. Trainings & Workshops IMPROVING SERVICES THROUGH PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT Each year, LiveOn NY presents a variety of educational events, trainings and workshops focused on innovative ideas, best practices and real life skills designed to educate senior service professionals and enhance the quality of services provided by New Yorks aging services network. Highlights include Hosted 50 in-person workshops and 10 webinars providing professional development. Active monthly committee & coalitions meetings to work on issues faced by members and seniors across the City and State Annual Conference & Vendor Expo. The 2017 Annual Conference was extremely successful hosted 417 attendees. Statewide Webinar Education. Thanks to a State funding mechanism subcontracted through the Association on Aging in New York, we provided 15 workshops that had roughly 350 participants throughout the State. Topics included time management, clinical information and program resources. Capacity Building Technical Assistance PROFESSIONAL SERVICES FOR EXECUTIVES & ADMINISTRATORS LiveOn NY provides free customized capacity building assistance to community based aging service providers to enhance their ability to deliver quality programs and services to meet the evolving needs of older New Yorkers. Assistance is customized to meet specific needs, and is delivered by qualified professionals under the supervision of LiveOn NY. This assistance is often focused on management or fiscal issues. Managerial technical assistance might include advisory board development, board of directors trainings, development of bylaws, personnel policy reviews, strategic planning, or fundraising and marketing training. Fiscal technical assistance might include training in DFTA financial management, cost allocation, or year-end closeout, bookkeeping systems, audit preparation, nonprofit tax compliance, payroll tax compliance, or guidance on capital/onetime payments and renovations. Falls Prevention HELPING TO PREVENT FALLS AMONG OLDER NEW YORKERS With the support of the Balance Incentive Program (BIP) from New York State, LiveOn NY created a falls prevention program that uses the Evidence Based Program, A Matter of Balance, to educate older people on falls and balance. Our program also coordinates informational fairs, screenings from geriatricians and optional home visits to further prevent falls in the home. Mental Health First Aid CREATING TOOLS TO SERVE OLDER ADULTS WITH MENTAL HEALTH NEEDS Mental Health First Aid is an 8-hour course that teaches you how to help someone who is developing a mental health problem or experiencing a mental health crisis. The training helps you identify, understand, and respond to signs of mental illnesses and substance use disorders. LiveOn NY is proud to have a certified trainer on staff through a grant with the Mental Health Association of NYC. HIV/AIDS Education ADDRESSING AND PREVENTING HIV AND AIDS For the last 11 years, LiveOn NY has served as a subcontractor and partner to the AIDS Community Research Initiative of America (ACRIA) to head their efforts on HIV/AIDS within the population of older New Yorkers. In addition to developing curriculum appropriate for older adults and provid

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

WORKING DIRECTLY WITH OLDER NEW YORKERSAs LiveOn NY works to make New York a better place to age, our direct service programs represent innovative public-private partnerships and address the growing challenges such as food and economic insecurity among older New Yorkers. Every direct service program has been customized to address a Citywide need that couldnt have been met on an individual agency level. Similar to all of our public policy initiatives, LiveOn NY creates proactive strategies when there is a need that can be filled.

BENEFIT OUTREACH PROGRAMENSURING ECONOMIC SECURITY FOR OLDER NEW YORKERSThe Benefits Outreach Program works one-on-one with roughly 4,000 older New Yorkers each year to help them make ends meet so that they dont have to make the daily and painful choice between rent, medication and food. To do this, we help older people determine their eligibility and apply for benefits programs that can put money in their pockets and save on costs. Those benefits programs include SNAP (foodstamps), SCRIE (the Senior Rent Freeze Programs), Medicaid, Medicare Savings Programs, HEAP and the Low-Income Subsidy. This work is based on a combined and flexible program model that conducts in-person, targeted outreach along with back office application and enrollment capacity. Outreach is conducted by providing educational sessions throughout New York City with a focus on our network of member agencies (NORCs, senior centers, case management agencies) as well as collaborating organizations who are seeing an increase in their senior community (libraries, bank branches, public officials offices, housing developments). Over the past year, we have conducted outreach and forged SNAP-specific relationships at over 1,000 locations throughout the five boroughs. The outreach works by placing friendly, knowledgeable and highly-trained staff within low-income, high-needs communities to educate older adults about food assistance options and screen them for potential eligibility for benefits. In-person, group trainings have been a successful strategy to confront the myths and stigma of entitlement programs. With the growth of elder scams and financial fraud, we know that older people are increasingly leery to talk about financial issues on the phone. Hosting in-person, senior-specific educational sessions within a familiar, comfortable, safe location, is therefore one of pivotal ways to break down the enrollment barrier. Once we have a direct, senior-focused and educational discussion that focuses on benefits as true entitlements, states the average monthly assistance that can be provided, and describes the enrollment process, a member of the outreach team conducts a brief intake survey to determine each persons eligibility for each program. Those who may be eligible are then referred to LiveOn NYs in-house client based service team who process each application through the phone and mail. All members of the team are both well-suited and well-prepared to dissect even the most complicated situation, ensuring maximum benefit for each individual. In many cases, they are able to help people who otherwise would not qualify identify their actual expenses to reveal their eligibility. Because most of the cases are generated from our in-person outreach, there is an added level of trust in the process.

SENIOR MEDICARE PATROLHELPING TO EMPOWER OLDER ADULTS TO PREVENT AND ADDRESS FRAUDBeginning in June 2015, LiveOn NY along with partner SAGE, started running the New York State Senior Medicare Patrol (SMP). Each state and four territories have an SMP which is funded by the federal government. We are thrilled to have been selected to host New Yorks SMP. The purpose of the program is to prevent and address healthcare fraud through: 1) having a toll free Medicare Fraud hotline that is staffed to accept reports on fraud, 2) organizing a statewide marketing campaign about the SMP, 3) training volunteers throughout New York State to conduct peer education, 4) conducting ongoing education for senior service providers on how to identify and report Medicare Fraud. In 2017, LiveOn NY conducted educational presentations both within our member network and in partnership with community groups, at health fairs and through web-based education to educate older adults and caregivers about medical fraud. We have also teamed up with the State Consumer Protection Bureau to host presentations on consumer fraud. Over the course of just the last 12 months, we have reached nearly 400,000 people through media placements, educated roughly 30,000 people through in-person education and run 7 key marketing campaigns with local press and social media.
