Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

VETERAN MENTORING GallantFew has continued to refine one-on-one mentoring By using the Azimuth Check Survey (azimuthcheck.org) to establish a baseline for the veteran in five functional areas, we then identify methodologies to improve fitness levels in each of the five areas The key in this concept is connection to a guide--a veteran with similar background and in the same local area who has successfully transitioned and is willing to share those lessons learned with a younger version of himself or herself This connection helps overcome isolation which we believe is the greatest threat to a veteran's successful transition GallantFew provided 877 services to veterans not included in other specific programs

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

RAIDER PROJECT The Raider Project is a focused effort on the Marine Corps Special Operations (Raiders) and combat marines. The Raider Project uses the Gallant Few Azimuth Check to set a baseline for where the veteran is on the transition journey and then uses that information to guide that veteran to a greater purpose and hope. The 349 direct services provided in 2018 range from emotional support and coaching to financial assistance, employment assistance and physical activities including indoor and outdoor rock climbing and surf link-ups. Raider Project also increased participation with active duty and veteran family members. This program is led by a Marine Raider combat veteran.
